PATTI McKEEVER

Patty,
I still have that baby picture of you that you hated and tried to shred. I taped it back together! Yours were cute then but now your beautiful. I wonder if I'll look as beautiful and as glowing as you do a few months before my wedding. I don't have to wish you luck cause you don't need it. Brian is the luckiest man in the world and you know it too. Hee Hee I'll be looking forward to that. I don't think I'll be crying but I'll have the biggest ~~and~~ smile cause I'm proud to have such a happy and lucky and blessed friend.

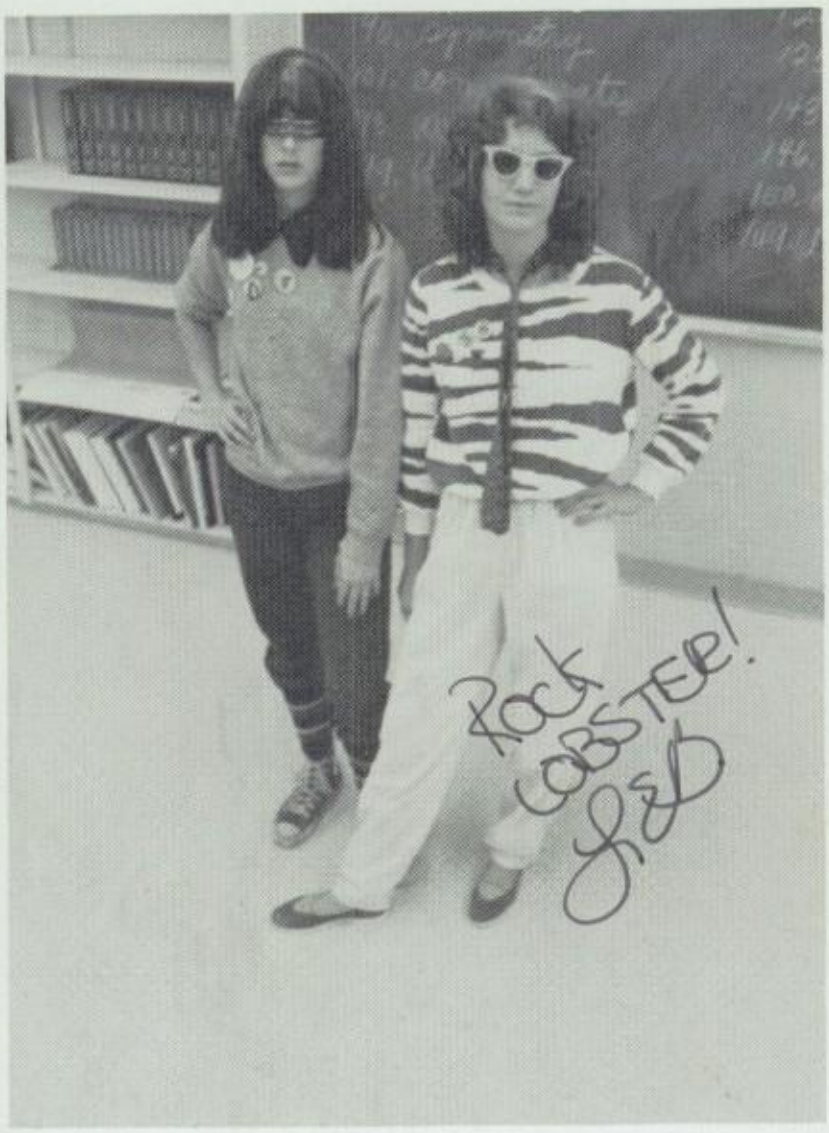
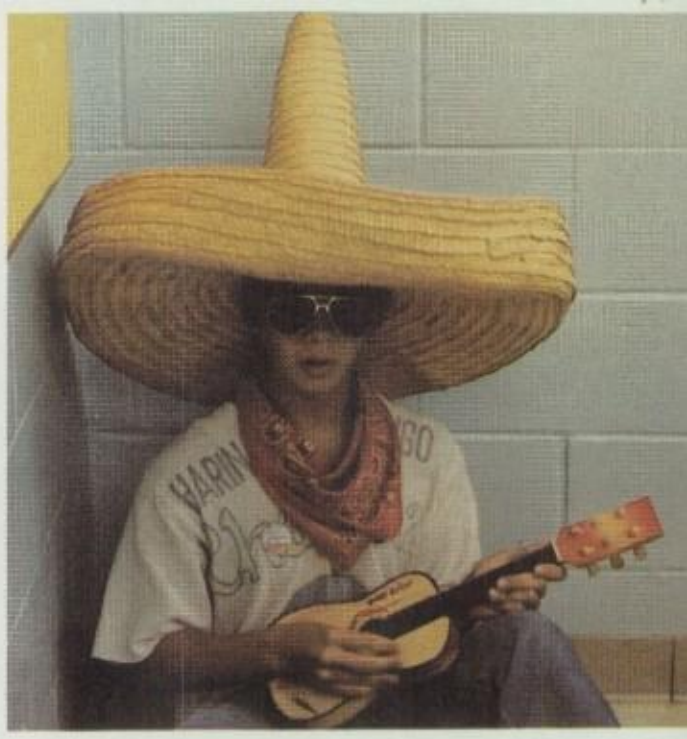
We ARE TOO COOL – Rachelle

Those Were The Days . . .



Some of the things we will remember best about our days in high school are the Dress-Up Days during football season. Wearing our parents' clothes from the 50's, the far-out caps and sunglasses on Shades and Caps Day, and the colorful Mexican outfits on Siesta (Fiesta?) Day brought out that all-important Sharyland Spirit.



Kevin Sparks (right), hidden beneath his straw sombrero, strums a tune on Siesta Day.

Mr. R. checks the passes of Blake Woerner, David Stevenson, and Marilyn Bacon (bottom left).

It's Fun To Remember Crazy Dress-Up Days

Monique Newkirk (right) wore this beautiful Mexican dress for Siesta Day.

Chris Villarreal and Gloria Quesada (bottom right) and Rachelle Jinks, Lori Everhard, and Lisa Morris model other lovely Mexican styles on Siesta Day.

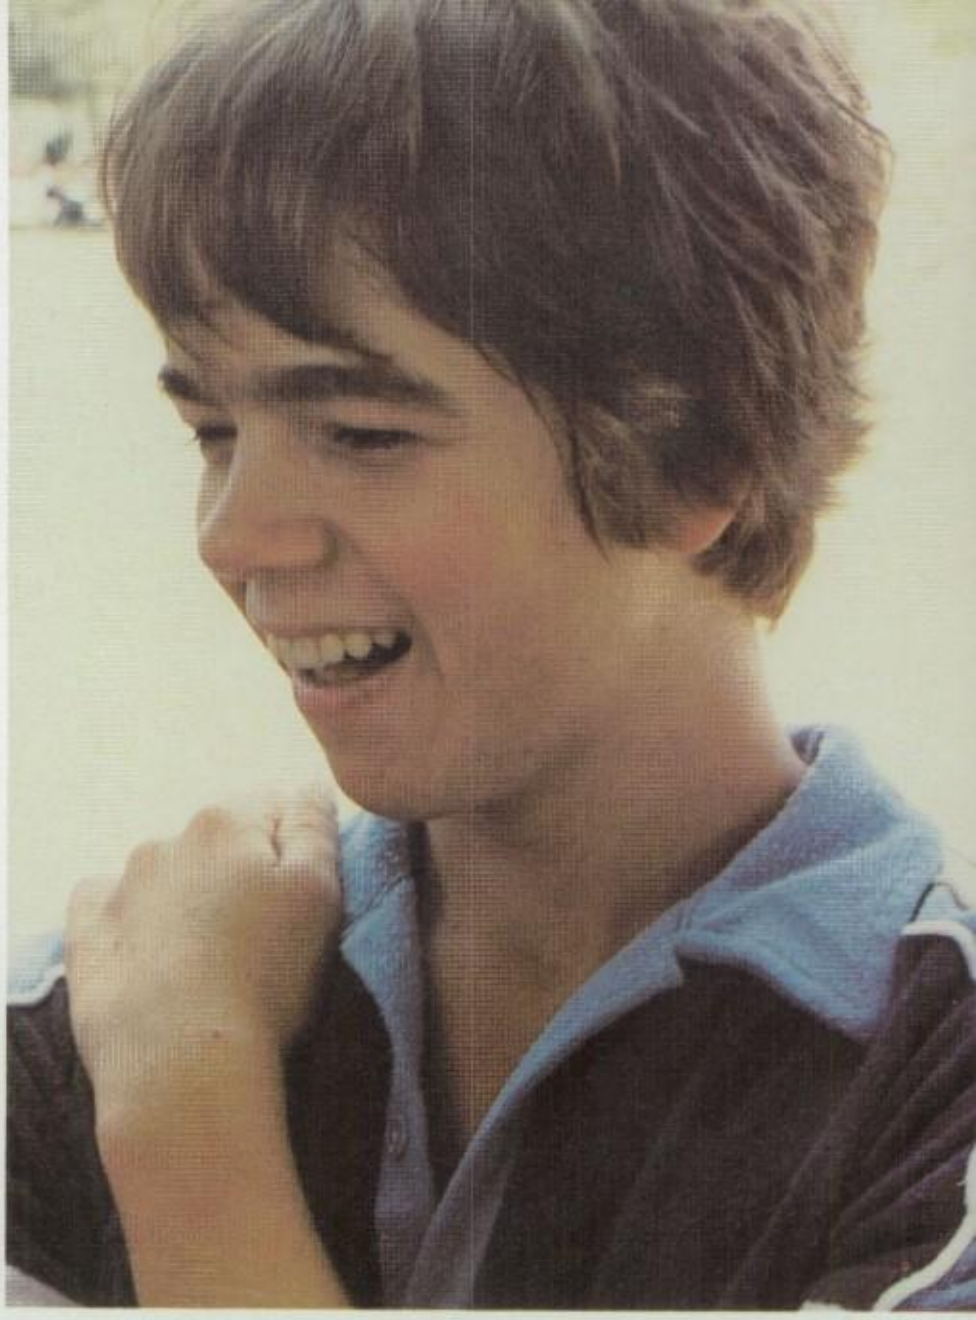
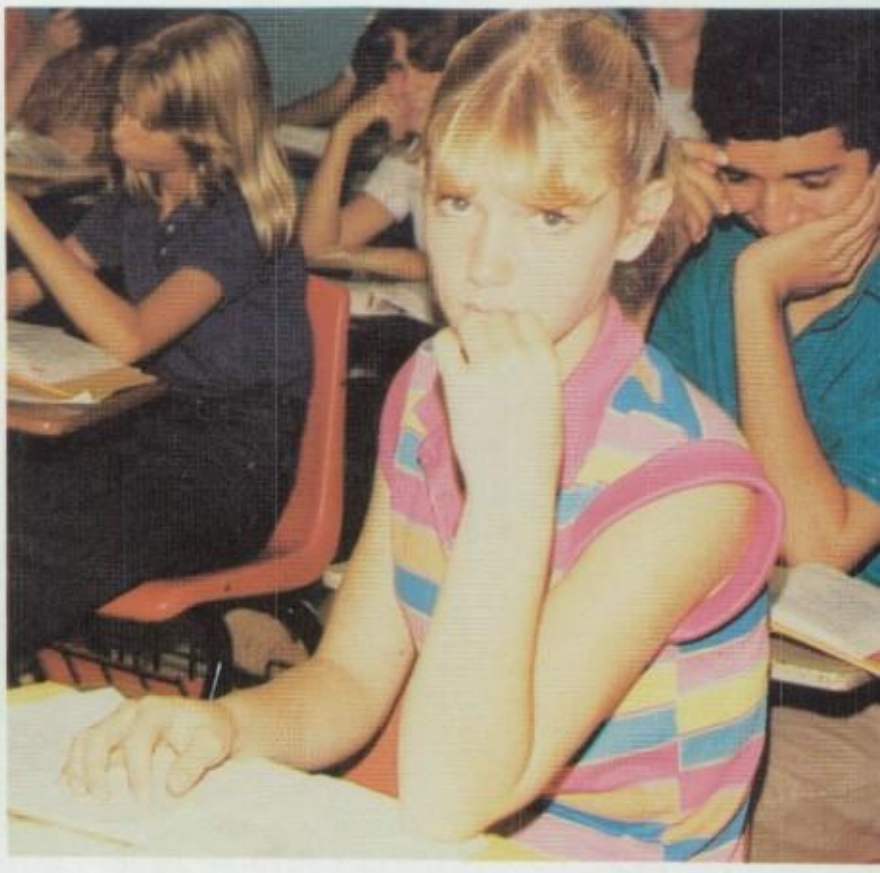
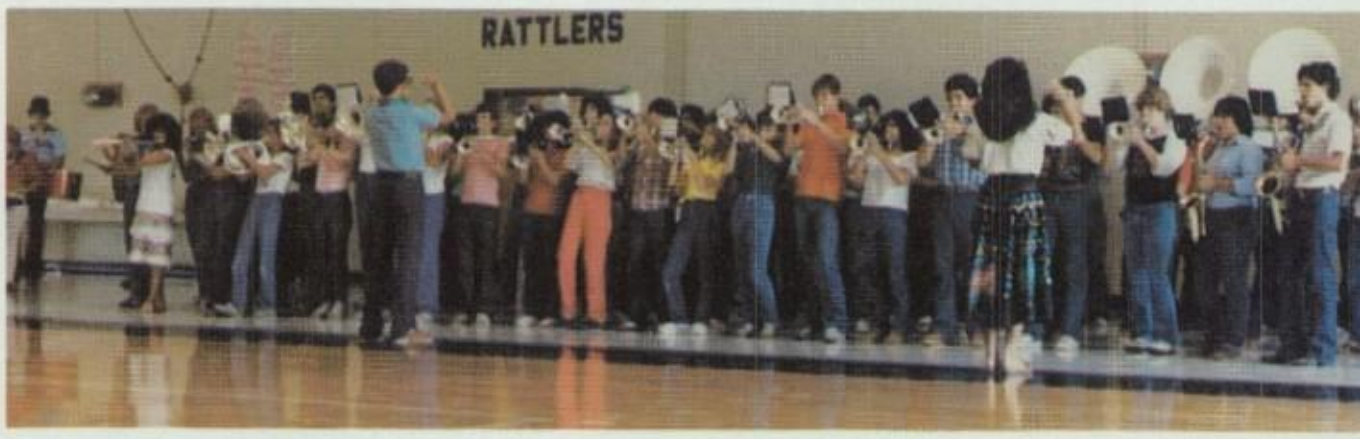
In '83 Who Are We?

We're a smiling senior like Kevin Sparks (right) . . .
We're the philosophy expressed in the sign below . . .
We're a Yearbook staff working late hours after school . . .
We're uninhibited cut-ups like Brenda Laffoon and Darryl Rock.







Top to bottom:

We're an enthusiastic bunch of football players sprawled in our special place in the hall . . .

We're a pensive Cyndee Oares and an amused Angel Perez . . .

We're three good buddies, Marilyn Bacon, Katrina Clanahan, and Linda Best . . .

We're a glad-to-be-alive Gailene Jaques . . .

And we're the Rattler Band, led by Drum Majors Mark Bullard and Chris Villarreal.

All of us are all of this and more.

A Sharyland Special . . .

12 Years Together

Not many public schools have the unique campus we have . . . from first grade to graduation right here! Remember when Mark pushed Patti in the mud? Remember jacks on the sidewalk? Dog piles? Chinese jumpropes? 8th grade District football championship and Homecoming at the Mission Armory? Remember the 5th grade comic-book store? The "other" book on the canal? What neat memories!!

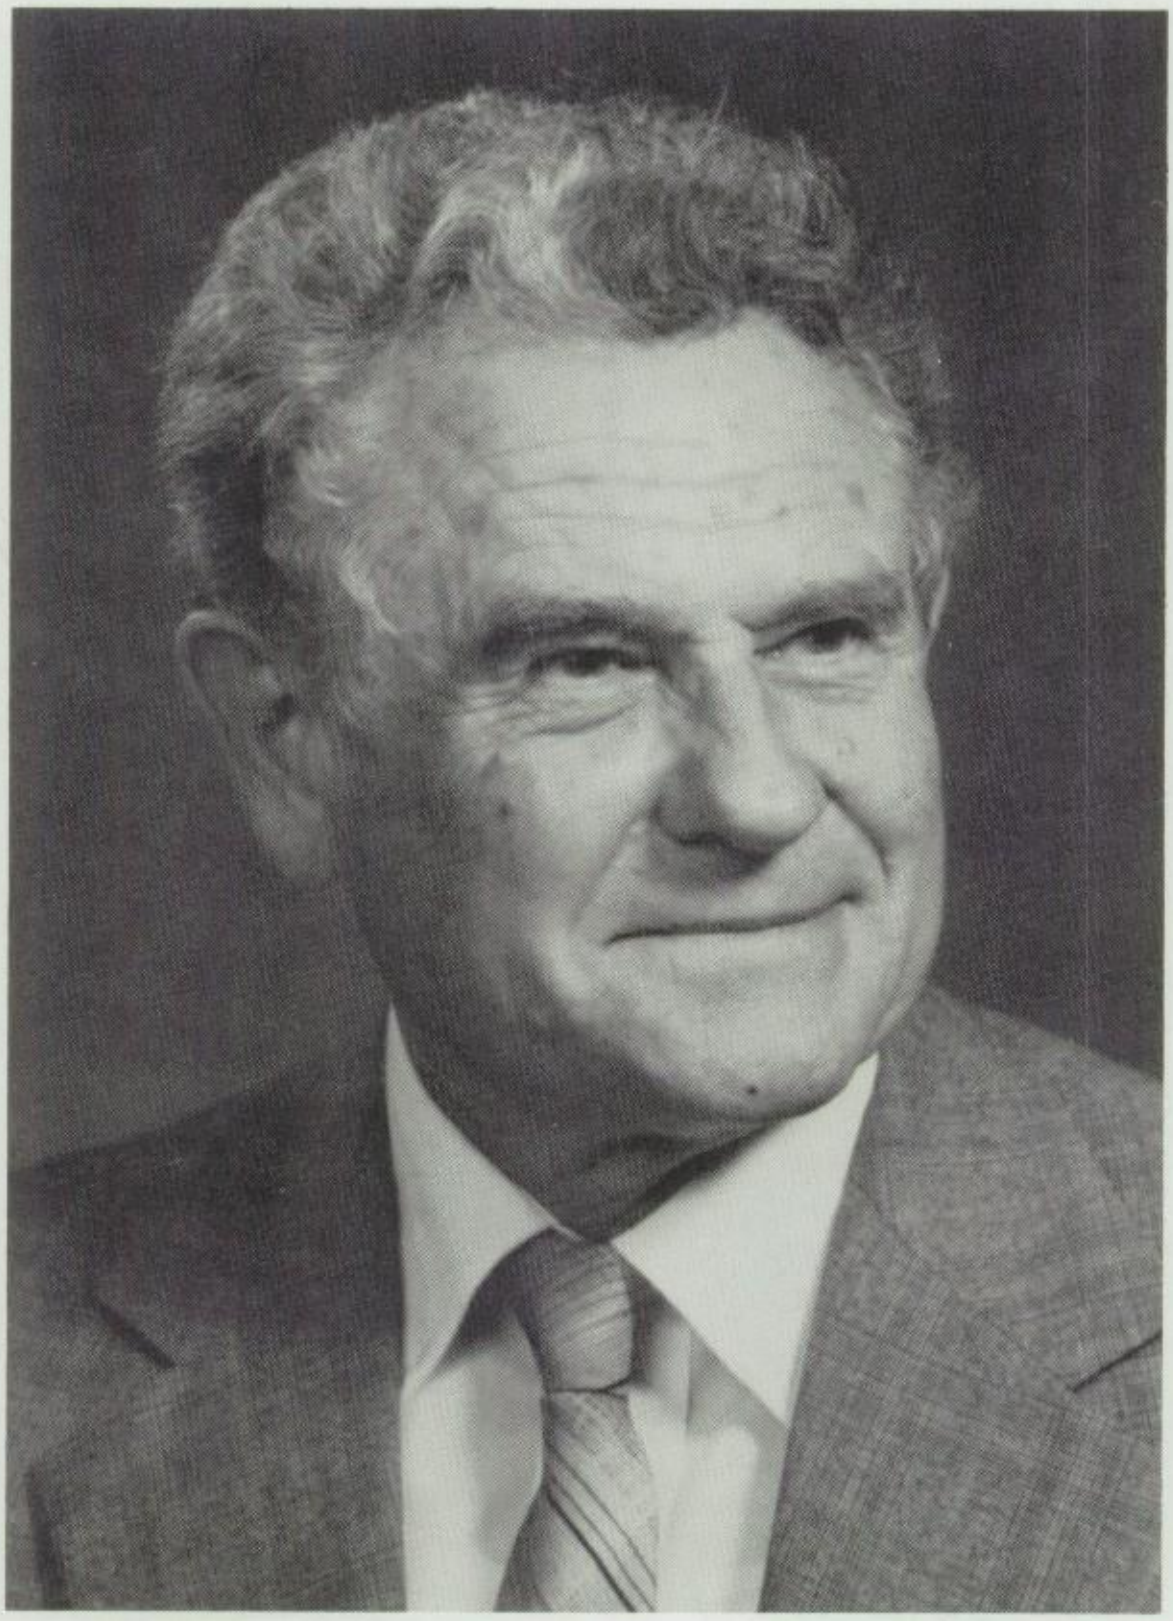
Mr. Gray Retires



It has been said of George Washington that he had common sense to the point of genius. The same can be said of B. L. Gray. Under his 26 years of quiet, low-key leadership, Sharyland has grown from a second-rate school to a school district so desirable that real estate ads proudly proclaim "House in the Sharyland School District."

And through it all — through the building programs and the bond issues, through the new math and the mounds of federal regulations — through it all Mr. Gray never lost sight of the purpose of any school — the kids. When his office was still in the old high school, he woud come out into the hall between class periods just to see the kids. Even now that his office is separate from the school building, he comes over often on some pretext or other. The real reason is to see the kids — his kids.

Sharyland will continue to grow and develop and excell, but the foundation was laid by one man, Mr. B.L. Gray. He will always be a part of Sharyland.

Faculty

English At SHS
Grammar & Lit.

This year we have a new addition to the English Department . . . Mrs. Alma Marques, who has quickly "fit in" at our high school. She should, because she is a graduate of Sharyland and last year taught in B.L. Gray Junior High. This year she finally made it to the big times, teaching Freshmen!

The English faculty also includes Mr. Powell and Mrs. Ownbey breaking in the Freshmen. The Sophomores are kept on the right track by Mrs. Young and Mrs. Marques; The Juniors are put through their paces by Mrs. Jarrett and Mrs. Young, and Mrs. Ownbey and Mrs. McLeaish keep the hopeful Seniors busy with their favorite pastime . . . the dreaded research paper.

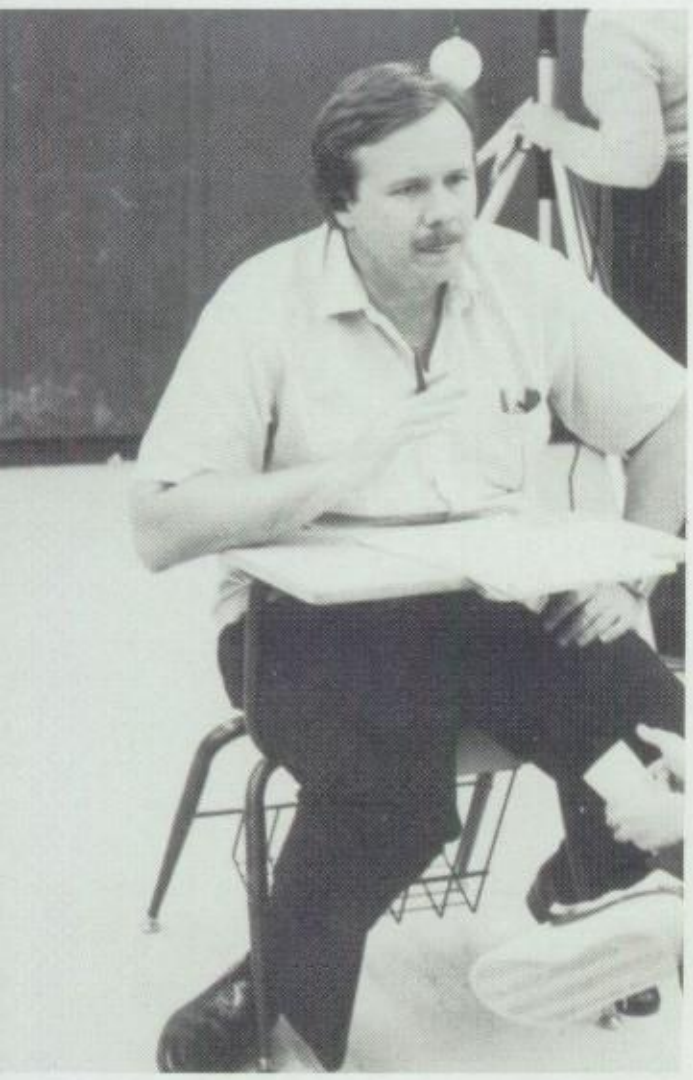
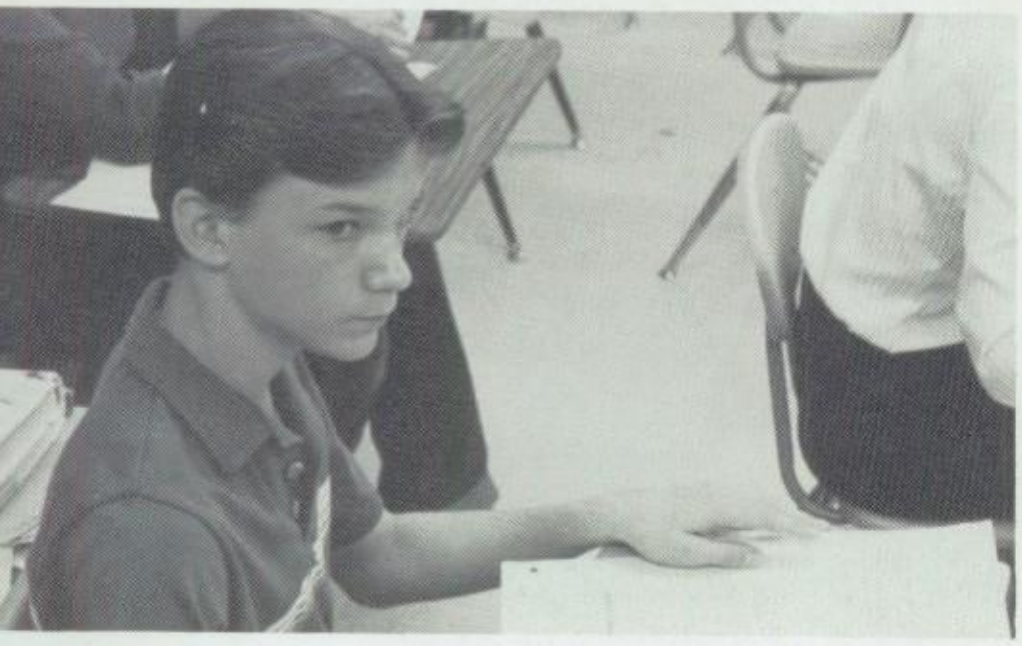
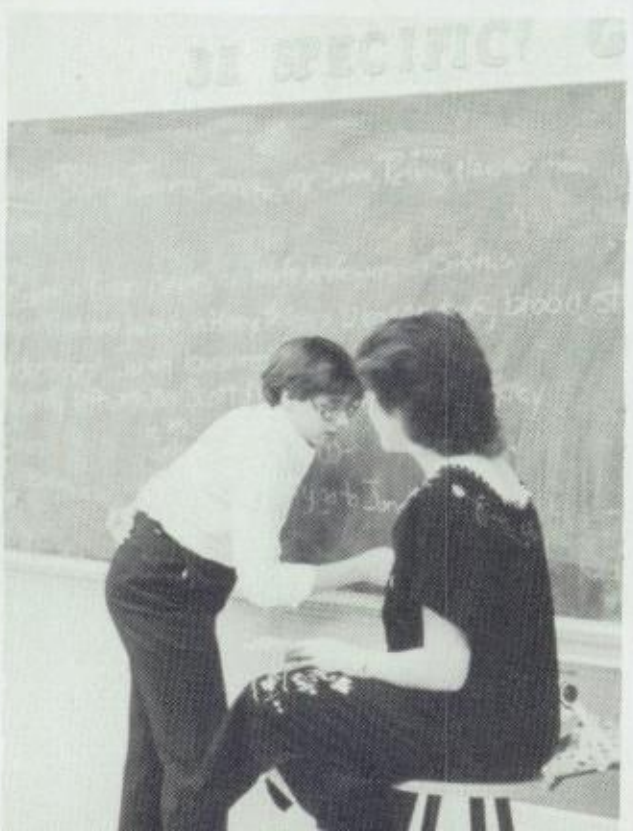
Below: Mrs. Marques's classes get a special treat when she reads to them.

Bottom left: Paul Dondlinger seems to be a little puzzled about a fine point of grammar.

Bottom right: Shelley Smith and Liza Dominguez lead their class in inductive reasoning as they solve the Kelley Murder Case.







Other looks at English

From top: Mrs. Young greets a friend in the hall.

Sharolyn Lathrop goes over her note cards for her junior- year research paper.

Freshman Steven Stevenson and Mrs. Ownbey have another look at those pesky verbals.

VAC
In third year

The Vocational Adjustment Class was started at Sharyland High School three years ago to give individualized instruction in English, science, history, and math. Pre-vocational skills are also stressed. The class is taught by Bette Kiefer and Mary Navarro

From top: Mrs. Kiefer prepares to reach a lesson in science.

Ms. Navarro types up a paper for her classes to do the next day.

Juan Vela works hard in VAC.

History & Civics Among Most Popular Classes

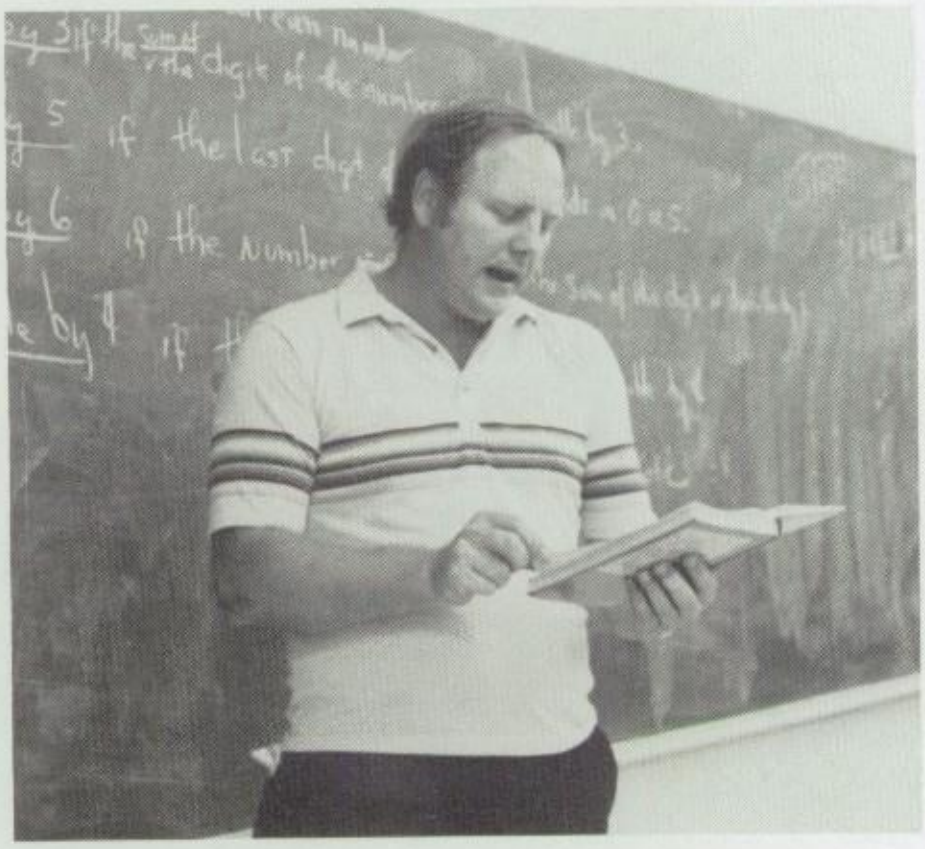
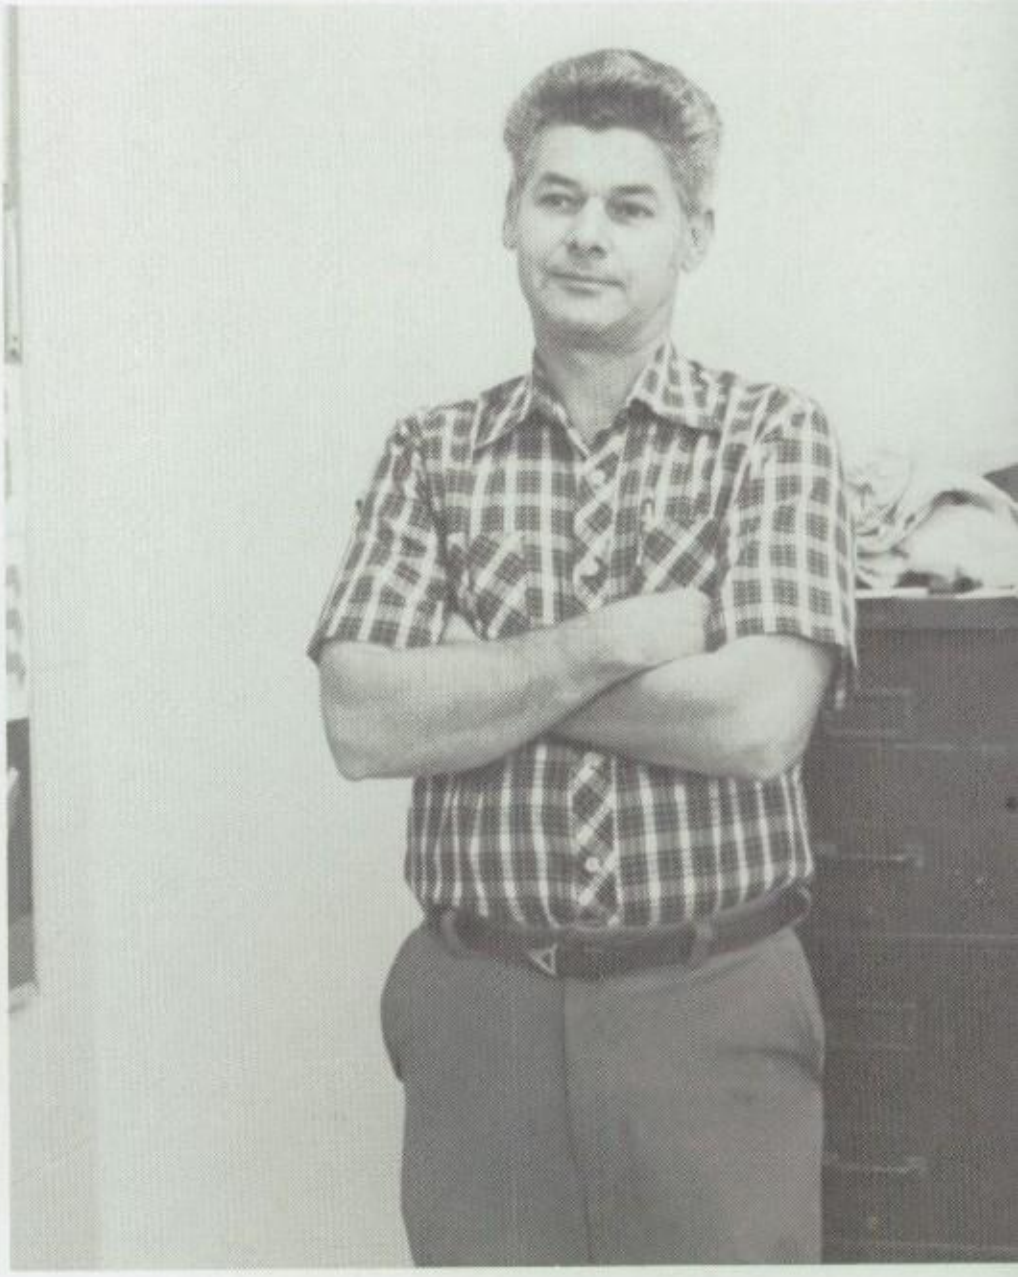
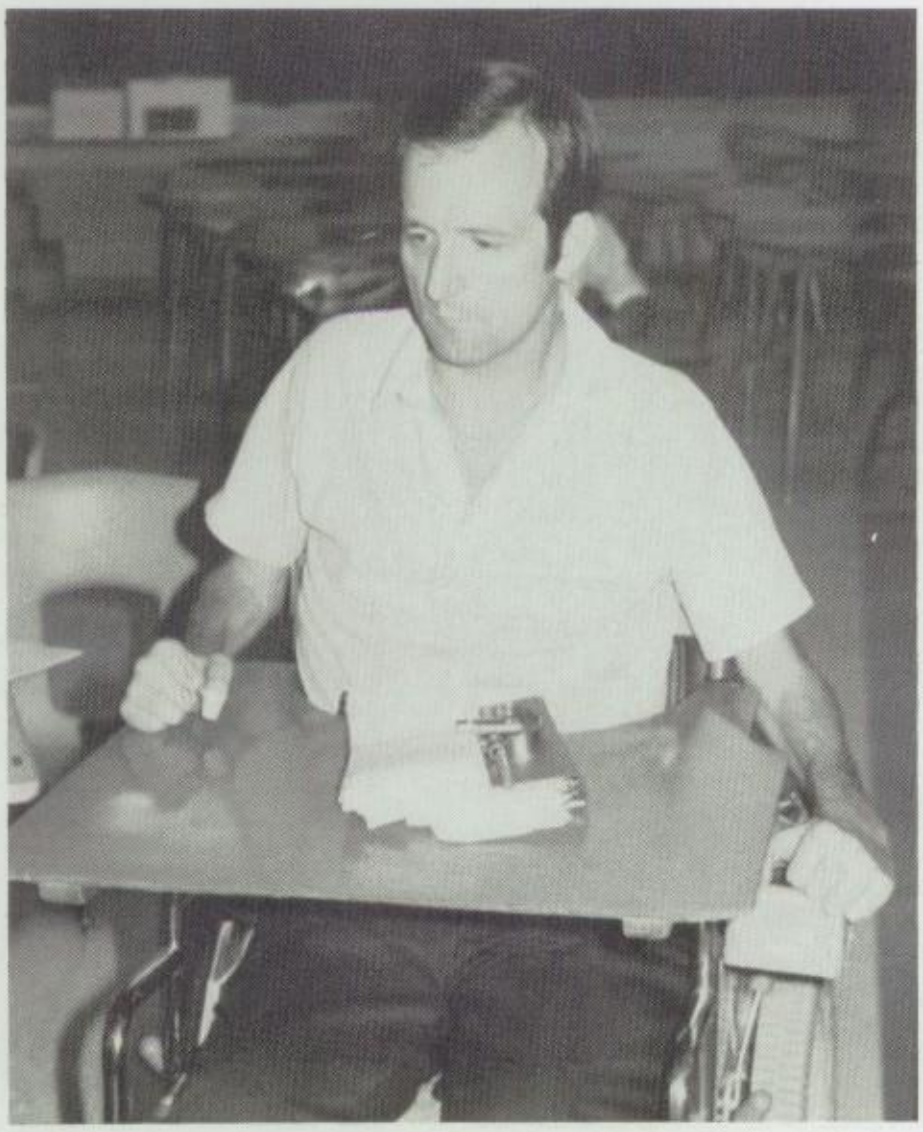
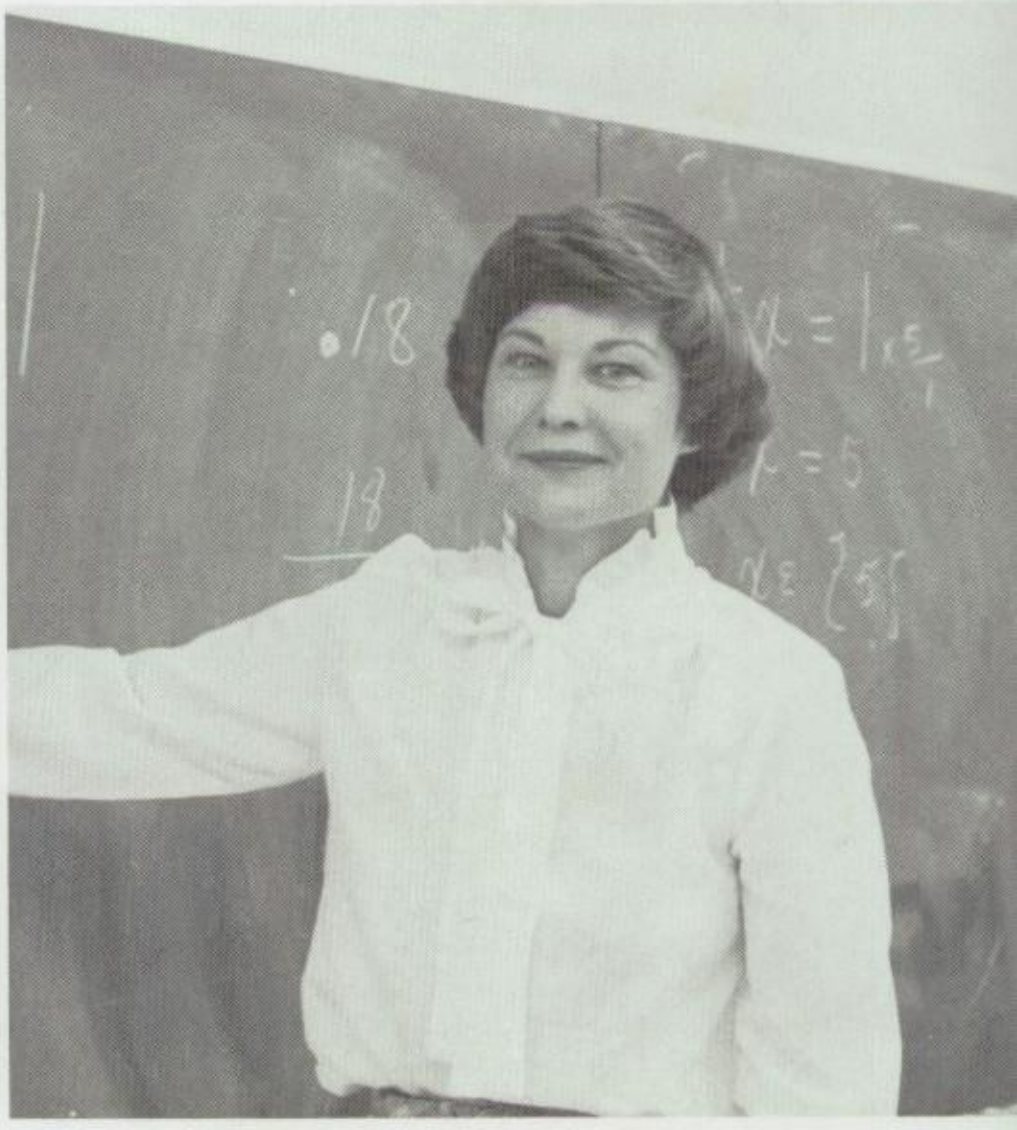
Two New Faces In Math Department

The Math department saw the addition of two more very competent instructors this year when Mrs. Karen Mims (bottom right) came to us from B.L. Gray Junior High, and Mr. Brian Cary (below) joined us from Hidalgo High School. They, plus veteran Sharylanders Mr. Bill McClure and Mr. George Nattrass, make up the faculty in math and physics.









S.H.S.'s Budding Scientists

Below: Mr. Stamps and Mr. Villalon register various reactions to student papers.

Above: Theresa Townsend and Adam Hardison seem to have Mrs. Wilson worried.

Homemaking:
We all live in homes; We all need Homemaking

In the clothing phase of Homemaking, students learn to sew by hand and on a sewing machine. At right, San Juanita Montano, Nancy Hinojosa, Diana Hoyeula, Shelley Smith, and Linda Massey work on their blouses. Below, Ronnie Havelka and Winstone Lizcano prove that sewing can be man's work, too. At bottom, students have to study in this course just like any other.

Business Is A Mus

At right: Mrs. Mildred Whitmire gives a short assignment to her class.
Below: Juan Castillo, Melva Ayala, Mary Reyna and Xavier Suarez are typing their assignment while Mrs. Whitmire lectures to Oscar Trevino and Raquel Casas.

or Many Students

At left: Three of the accounting students, Steve Pankratz, Arthur Nava, and Rene Allison, figure out their balances.
Below at left: Mrs. Kay Phillips has a cheerful smile for the excellent papers she has graded.
At right: Students are listening to the assignment while it is being given.
Below: General Business students enjoy their class which is being taught by Mrs. Phillps.

CPR, First Aid Taught In Health

Clockwise from top: Mr. Rey Villalon instructs his health class.
Chris Haden applies a tourniquet to Ernie Ibanez' arm and . . .
. . . then to his leg.
Max Sanchez poses as the victim who is about to be revived by CPR from Debbie Bannworth, with Mr. Villalon's help.
Roy Rivera helps a "fainting" Marise Galeana bend over in order to "revive" her.

Learning To Draw, Paint Is Great Fun

Clockwise from top: Joe Noe Lopez, Petra Garcia, and Jimmy Sanchez tackle a still life.

Ms. Carrillo figures averages for six-weeks grades.

Joe Reyna, Javier Solis, and Eduardo Nunez listen in as Ms. Carrillo gives Julie Perez some pointers on her sketch.

Talented Mike Valencia does a pencil drawing of a car.

Do Si Do & Cottoneyed Joe

The girls' physical education department was one of the jumpingest places in the school this year. Our new teachers/coaches Teresa Winston and Cindy Hickey (at right) improved our bodies, minds, and spirits with fun activities like folk dancing. These pages show the fourth period kids having a great time with the Cotton-eyed Joe and Patty-cake Polka with some of the guys who joined in the fun.

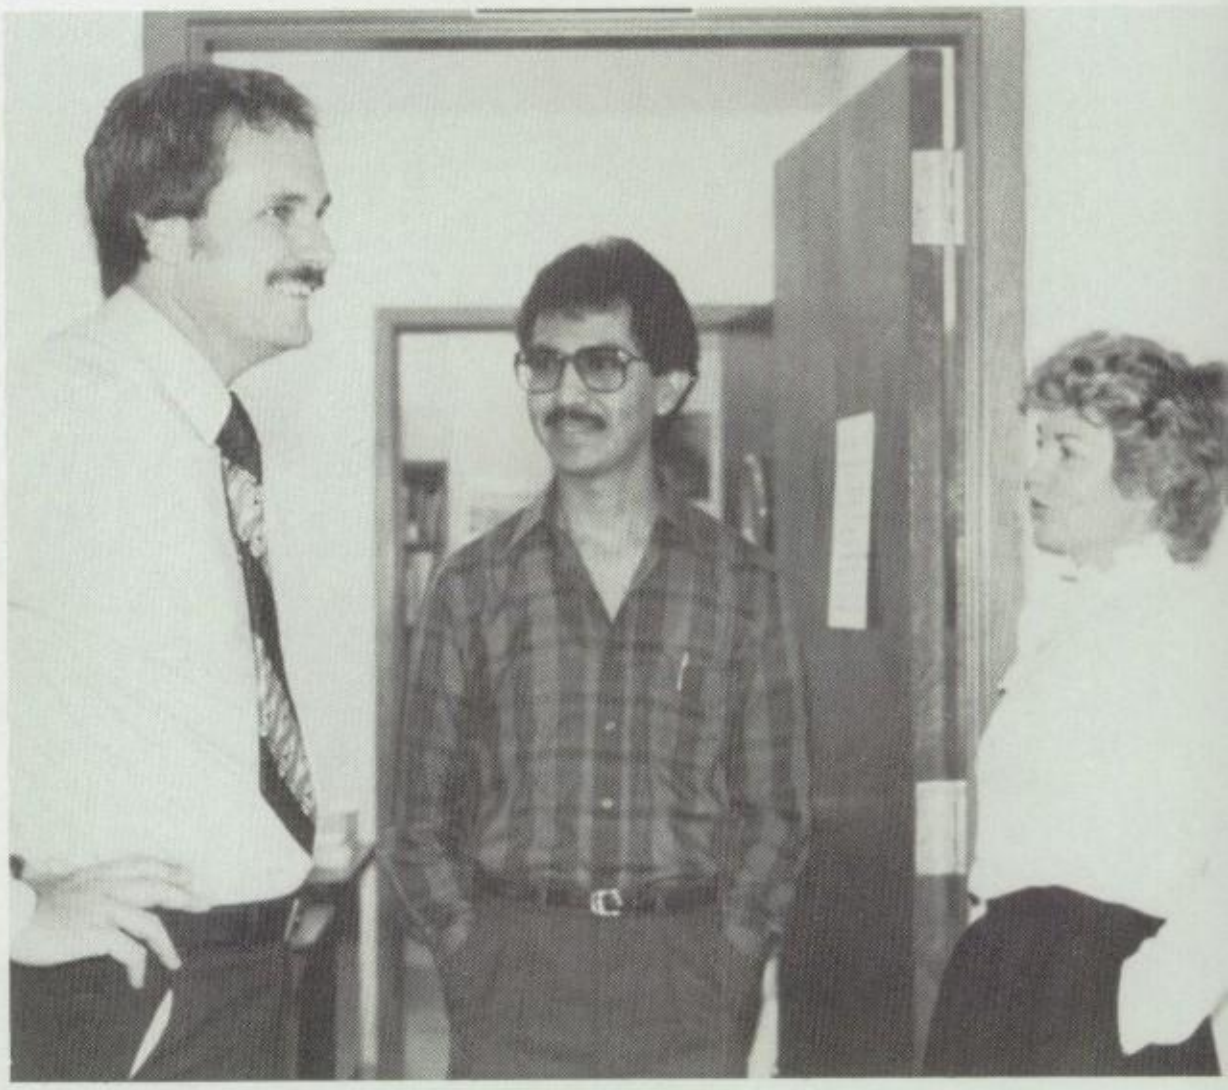
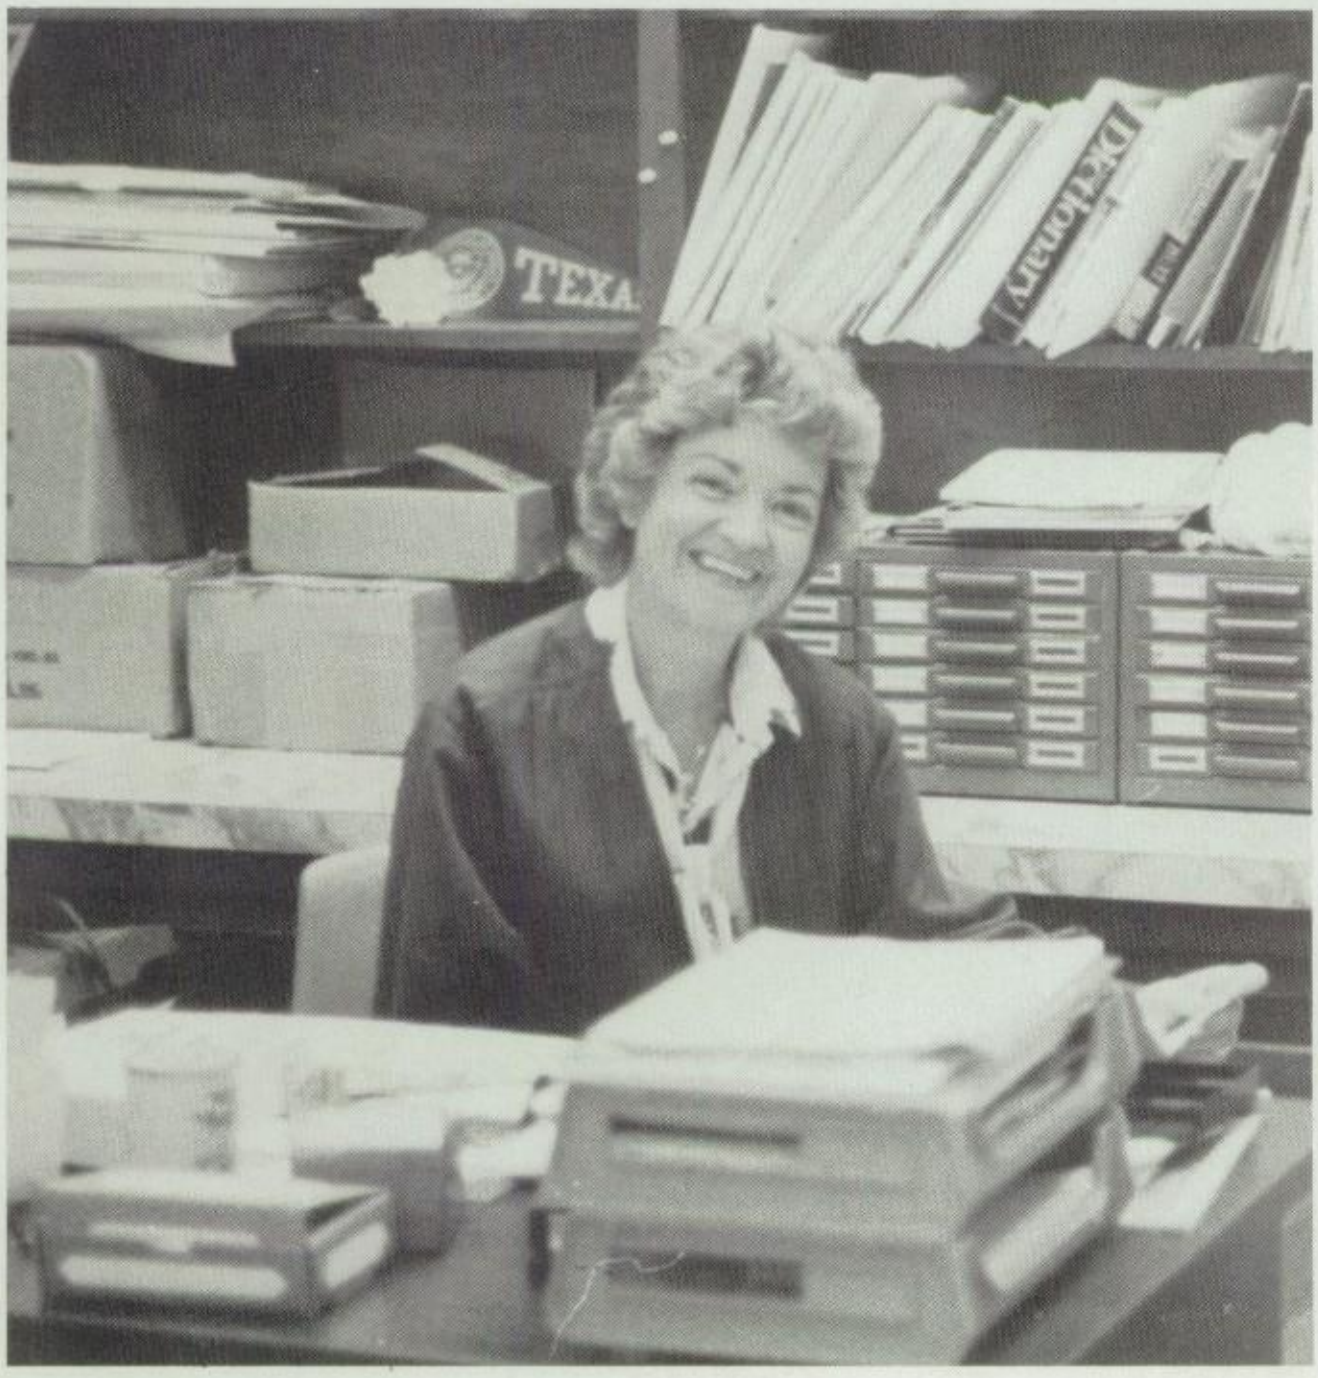
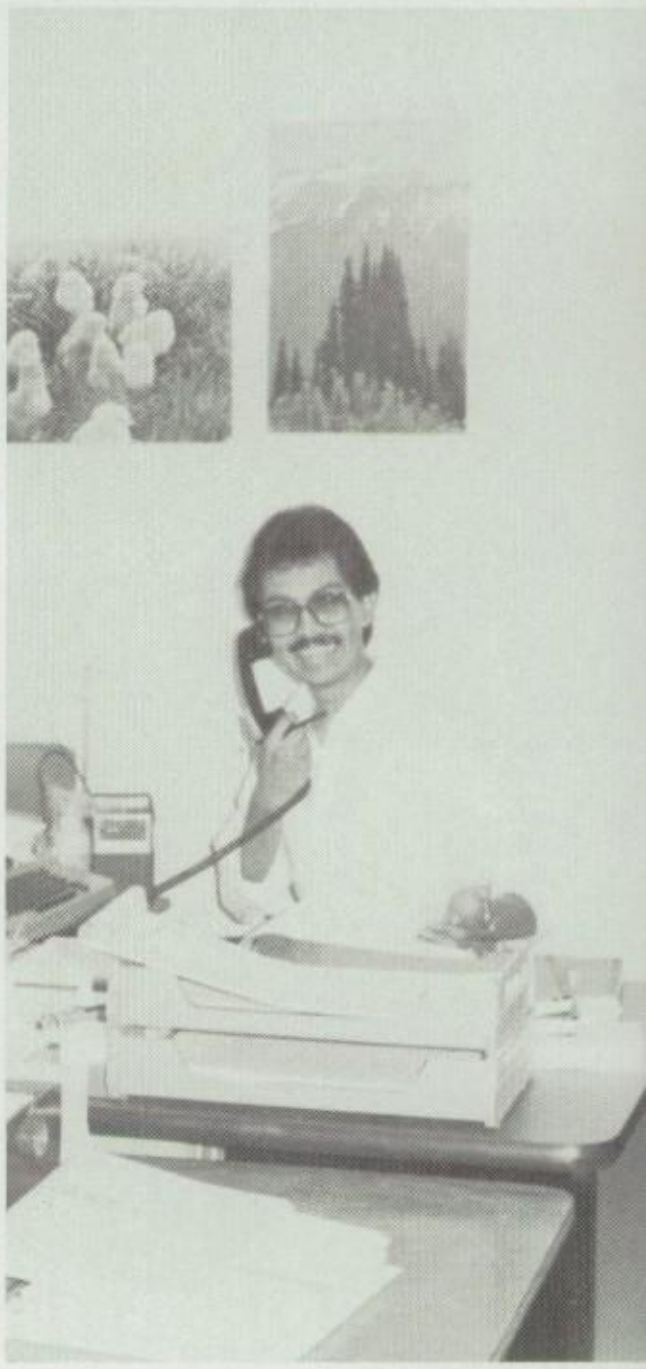
SHS Welcomes New Counselor



Marie Sykes has gotten her first taste of Sharyland High School this year. Before coming to S.H.S. she was at Region One Educational Center. She is in charge of testing, college and career planning for Seniors, guiding and counseling. Not only is she very helpful, but she adds a kind freshness to our halls. Frank Perez is the Counselor's Assistant. He spends much of his time keeping students' grades and records in order. He's also the one students talk to when confused on how to use the GIS Terminal.

Top: Mr. Jirovec chats with Frank and Mrs. Sykes. Bottom left: Mrs. Sykes adjusts to new surroundings. Bottom right: Frank loves his work!





From Top: Mrs. Stamps checks absences.

Ruby keeps busy with the mail.

Office helpers are (sitting) Abe Hernandez, Kent Ray, Mrs. Garren (standing) Diana Sanchez, Sandra Salinas, Hilda Sanchez, Mrs. Stamps, Mrs. Ramirez, Nina Lambert, Theresa Luera, Kellie Mainzer, Cary Holmsley, Teresa Townsend, Bobby Bell, Rachelle Jinks, Chantel Morneau.

Mrs. Garren keeps the office in order.

Mrs. MacMiller and Alma Garcia weigh a few kids.

Often A Kid's Best Friend

Sylvia Stamps, Mr. Jorivec's secretary, keeps up with all our absences and tardies. Mrs. Ruby Ramirez, with her new look this year, is Mr. Richardson's secretary and Mrs. Garren's right hand. Mrs. Pauline Garren is everyting to everybody, an impossible task for anyone else. Ever kind, ever patient, she is one in a million. Mrs. MacMiller keeps all of our wounds treated. She and her assistant Alma Garcia also keep a constant check on all of us to see if we are all growing, seeing and hearing everything all right.

Our Principals

One of the strengths of Sharyland High School is its principals. James Richardson in his first year as principal has been competently assisted by David Jirovec, who came to us this year from Memorial High School in McAllen. These two men have kept us on the Straight and Narrow with confidence and good humor, and we do appreciate them.

Mr. Richardson and Mr. Jirovec are shown above and at right. Below, Mr. Luther confers with Mr. Richardson.

Shhh — Sharyland's Library is still a good place to stud

For making prose and poetry selections for UIL tournaments; for choosing the shortest book possible for those English class book reports; for finding facts we can use for research papers and debate; and even for reading magazines, newspapers, and books for the fun of it — these are the many ways we use our library.

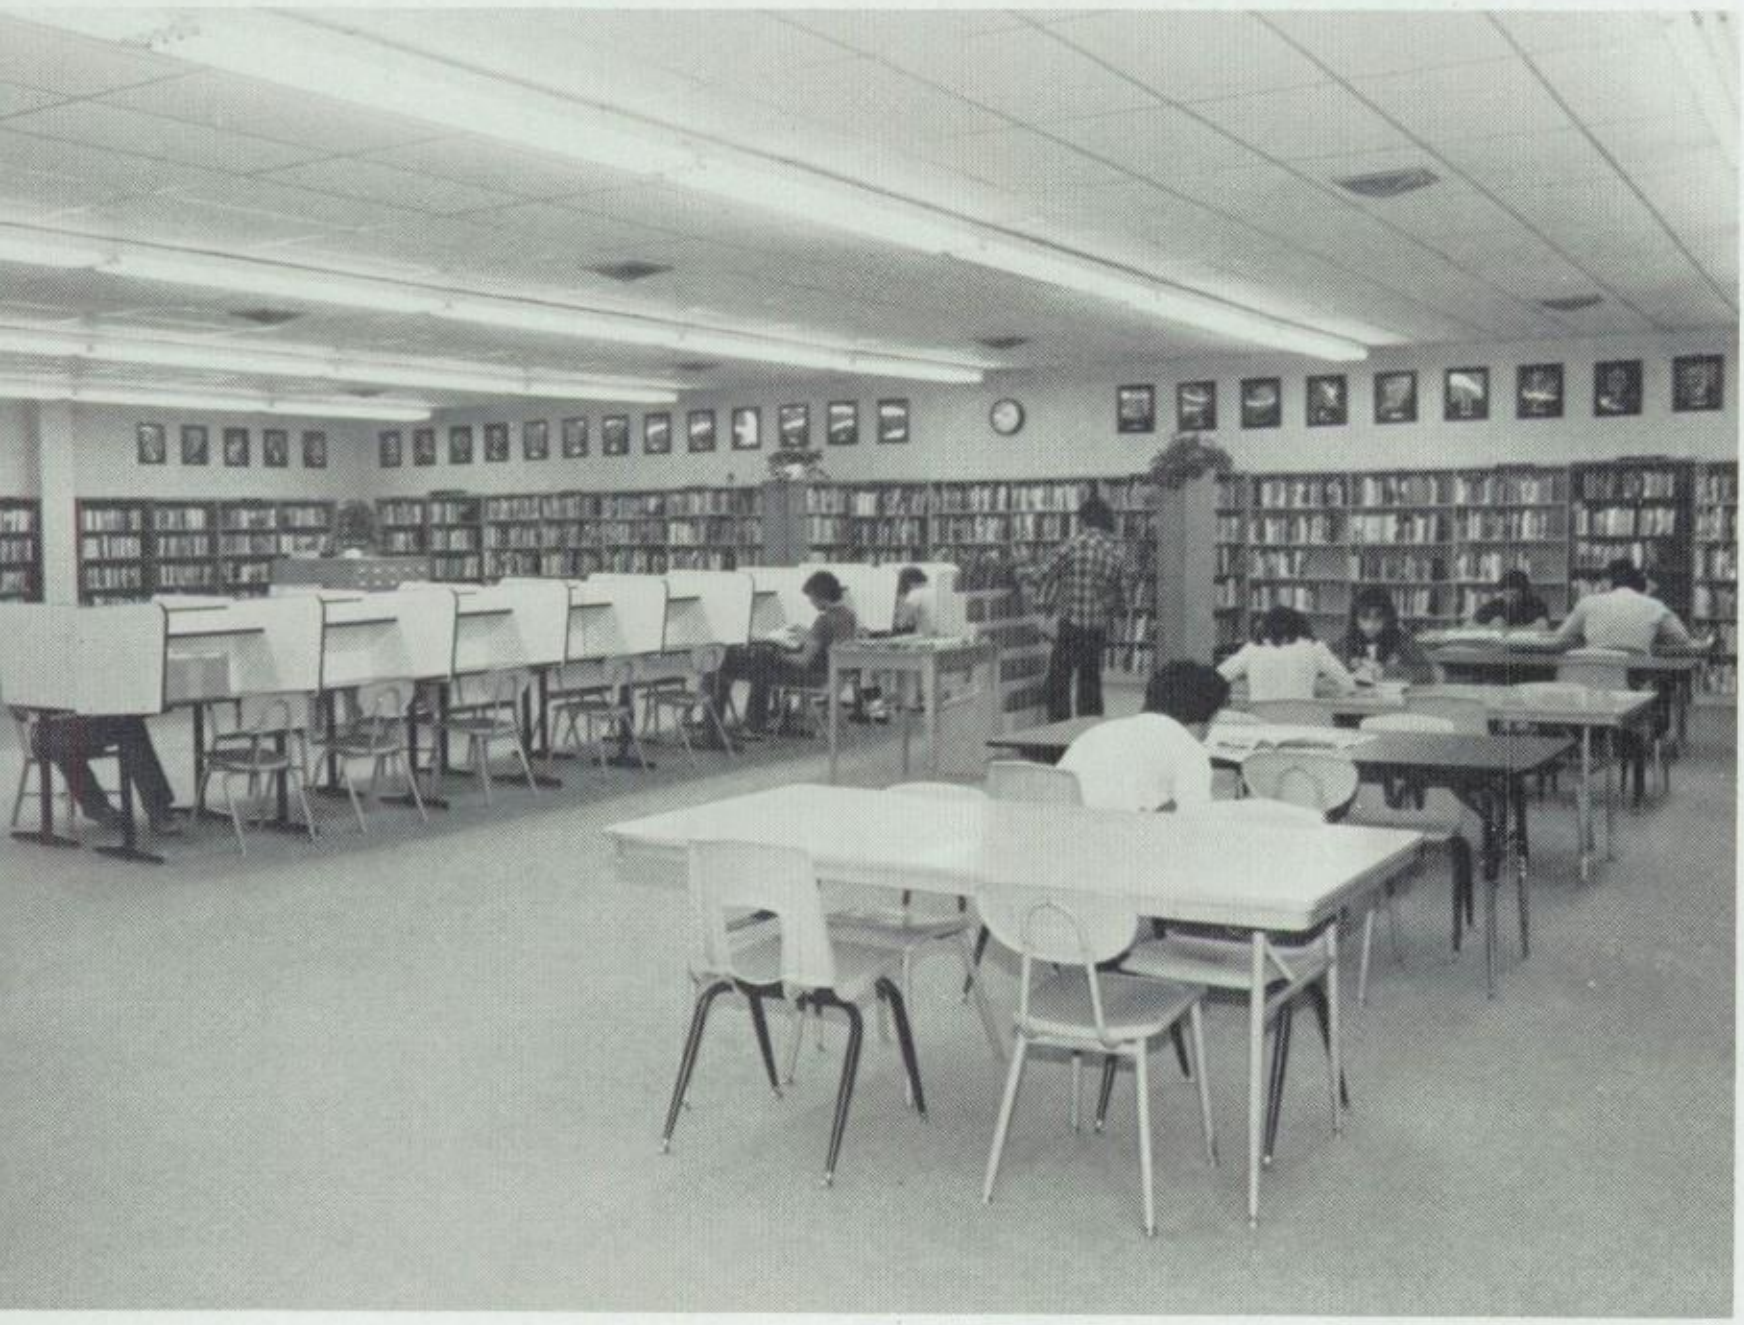
Librarian Edith Arensman and her three assistants, Imogene Nattrass, Joanne Keating, and Lana McClure, are always there to give help and advice . . . and to remind us to keep quiet.

From top:
Mrs. Arensman types an order for some new books.
Mrs. Nattrass (left) explains some library procedure to new assistant Mrs. McClure.
Mrs. McClure places cards in returned books, and Mrs. Keating returns the books to the shelves.

You know I was pretending just to get myself into the annual.

Senior Diana Pena becomes very familiar with the card catalog as she digs for information she can use in writing her research paper for Mrs. McLeaish's English 4-A class.

Below: Our library is roomy and well equipped for study; we can spread our materials out on the big tables or work more privately in the carrels or enclosed study rooms. The library staff works hard to supply us with what we need in books, magazines, films and film strips, recordings, and more recently, video cassettes for the new VCR's.



Spanish Classes Have Student Teache

Far right: Mrs. D.D. Diaz checks her roll for attendance.

Right: Learning what teaching in the real world is all about, Miss Elizabeth Alonzo, student teacher from Pam American University, presents a lesson to her Spanish I class.

Eva Vasquez, Lisbet MacMiller, Marcella York, and Sheila Burris display the flags of Spanish-speaking countries tha they made.

Greg & Rachelle Named Mr. & Miss S.H

Gross Picture
Rachelle

This year we chose Greg Klement and Rachelle Jinks as the Seniors who represent the best in a Sharyland student, Mr. and Miss S.H.S.

Rachelle has been a leader throughout her high school career in athletics, student council, and class projects; she was also our beautiful Homecoming queen this year.

Greg, too, has been active in all school events for four years and this year was captain of the football team, president of Student Council, and president of FFA.

Each has maintained better than a B average in high school and each is a favorite with students and teachers alike. On top of all this, they are both fun people who are warm and friendly to everyone. We are proud to present them as our Mr. and Miss S.H.S.

The Run For The Roses

The 1982-83 Homecoming Queen, Rachelle Jinks, was named on October 8, when Shary-land's pride, the Fighting Rattlers, played the Rio Hondo Bobcats.

All the contestants posed together before the contest (except Lisa Morris, who was having her interview at the moment the picture was taken): Monique Newkirk, Quita Hill, Katrina Clanahan, Annette Grant, Kellie Mainzer, and Rosa Maldonado.

S.H.S. Has Photography Club

Sharyland has a Photography Club this year for the first time. Under the leadership of Brian Cary, the members have learned to use a 35mm camera and to develop and print their own pictures in the dark room in Room 8. Club members are (seated): Lupita Buentello, Elisa Lucio, Lorie Weathe ford, Marina Gonzalez, Maricela Castillo, and Mary Reyn standing: Steele Hunter, Marc Hagler, Eddie Tabor, Jaso Gabbert, Eddie Acosta, Robert Toungate, and Joel Pena.

Patti,

Well, Mr. Rich we made it all the way from talking about horses in Mrs Krugers room to talking about your wedding our final year of high school. Brian is a lucky guy cause he's got special person to me. You're a very than you know and I'm glad I've given me a hard time about drinking because it makes me feel like you care and I know you care. You're like a sister to me and I hope we can always have that special relationship. Thanks for being there when I needed you the most.

I'm so glad that you were a part of the Senior class of 83. Without you it wouldn't have been the same. Your smile each morning in first period made my day. Please take care of yourself and please don't change. You mean so much to me. You're a very special person and I can't say that enough. Keep in touch in the right order and I respect you for it. You're a special person and I don't say that enough. Keep in touch this summer. P.S. Don't break too many bed springs on your honeymoon & Come out of the room every once in a while for a breather.

Love ya!

Rusty Nash

Carnival '82 Is Success

1982-83 Carnival was a great success. People from the school and community showed up to join in on the fun. There were several new rides and games and there was plenty of food to feed the hungry visitors.

The teachers did most of the work, but the students were able to help out in both setting up booths and in selling goodies.

Carnival '82 wouldn't have been such a great success if it hadn't been for the superb leadership of "Mr. Mitch," the Building and Electrical Trades classes, and for the participation of the teachers and students.

Clockwise: Cynthia Chapa tries the bull ride. Melanie Rochester gets one last breath before she takes a plunge.

A bunch of kids wait to go on the hayride. Jack-of-all-trades-Garren sells tickets.

Jorge Gonzalez participates in the Sponge Throw.

Jaime Aguayo ducks as someone throws a dart.

Roy Schlegel and Rusty Allison enjoy the Football Throw.

Chantel Morneau and Sandy Jarzombek clown around between kisses.

SENIORS ARE THE BEST

Seniors 6-0 Over Juniors In Powder

What and dang have? Bg

Didn't we have a blast — especially at all the practices — Rachelle

Another FIRST at Sharyland! The Senior girls and Junior girls played in a Powder-puff Football Game November 19, sponsored by the Student Council. Profits from the 50-cents admission went to the American Cancer Society and the Rio Grande Valley Children's Home.

Cheerleaders for the Seniors are Bobby Bell, with Kevin Sparks aloft, and Jerry Fulwiler, holding Johnny Alvarez. (Above).

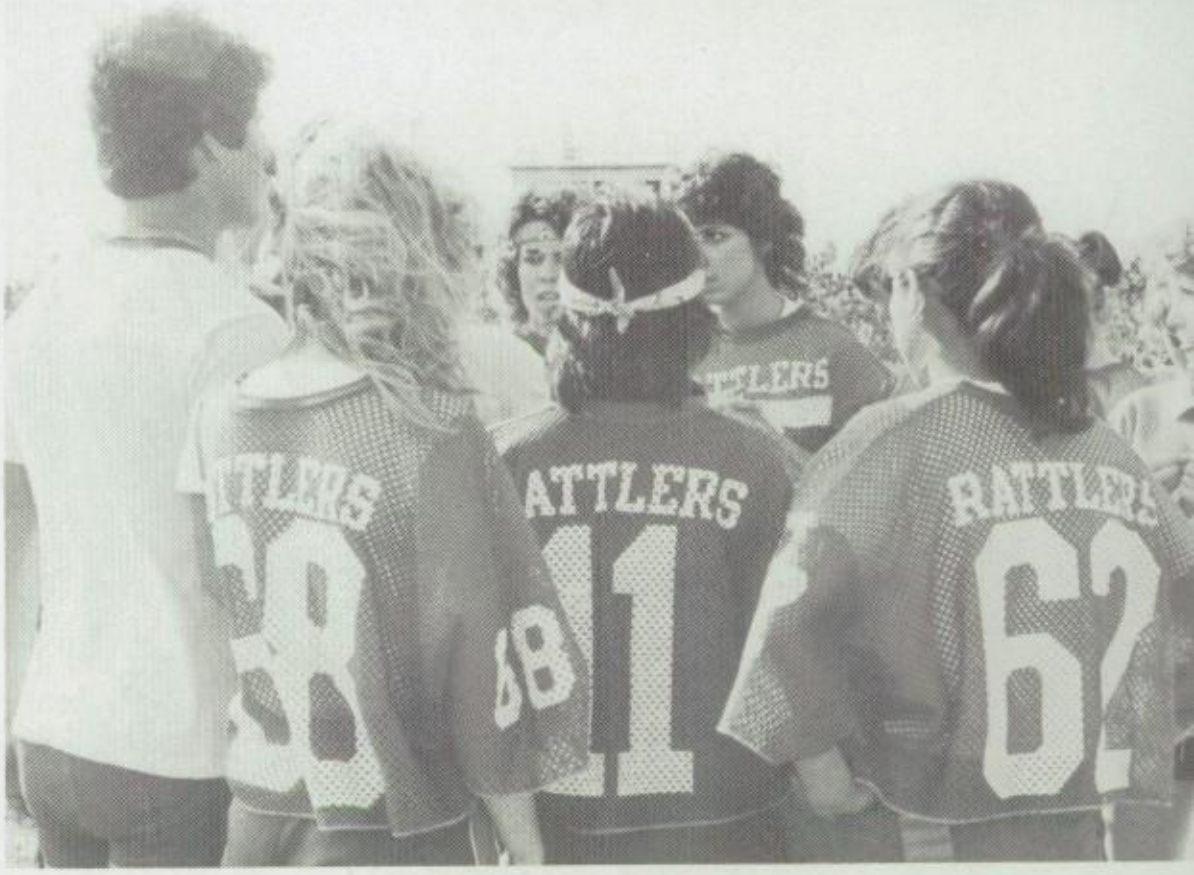
Below . . . some of the fancy foot work exhibited by the agile players.



Puff Football

Junior coaches were Roy Rivera, Joe Lopez, Jimmy Sanchez, Abe Hernandez, Kiki Suarez and Robert Hinojosa. They were cheered by Chris Haden, Martin Hagne, Alan Whitmire and Ernie Ibanez.

The teams and coaches and cheerleaders all devoted a great deal of time to this game and the students had a blast, too.

Senior players were Debi Gonzalez, Katrina Clanahan, Nuri Rodriguez, Marilyn Bacon, Linda Best, Patti McKeever, Theresa Townsend, Lisa Morris, Cary Holmsley, Rachelle Jinks (who scored for the Seniors!!) Barbara Jarzombek, Lori Everhard, Annette Grant, Lori Vance, Kellie Mainzer, Judy Benson, Amy Smith, Chris Villarreal and Anna Sorelo.

They were coached by Greg Klement, Rusty Nash and Roel Rodriguez, and the cheerleaders were Bobby Bell, Johnny Alvarez, Kevin Sparks and Jerry Fulwiler.

Junior team members were Shannon Piper, Shelley Hall, Marsella York, Lisbet MacMiller, Marise Galeana, Rosa Hinojosa, Betty Munguiz, Debbie Bannworth, Sandy Jarzombek, Marsha Morneau, Alma Casares, Srar Rodriguez and Jeanie Vela.

A Great UIL Tournament!

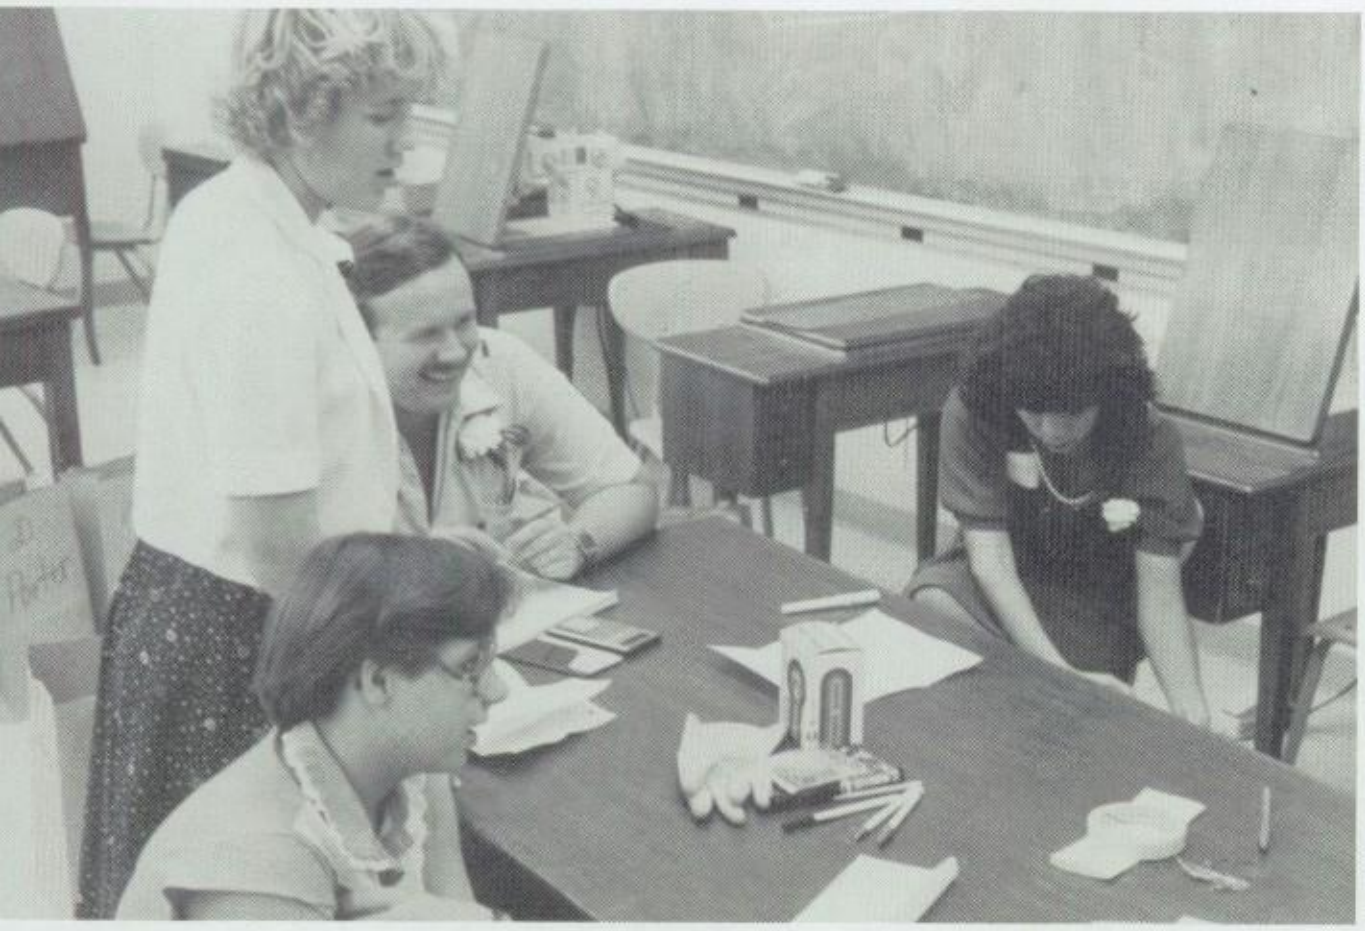
Throughout South Texas Sharyland enjoys the reputation for being the school that wrote the book on how to have a Speech and Drama tournament. The hours of drudgery organizing and typing the "poop book," assigning rooms, getting judges, arranging events around multiple-entries, and a million other details finally pay off in a smoothly run event. Mr. Powell and his kids and Mrs. McLeaish and her debaters do us proud each year.

Freshman Carol Summar cuts up cookies for the judges and coaches lounge.

By late afternoon everyone is punchy: Rusty Allison, Zina Salinas (whose shoes obviously hurt), and Jerry Fulwiler take a well-deserved break.

Ex-drama-kids often return to judge at these tournaments, and Tom Ownbey, home from UT, gets instructions from Mark Bullard and Brenda Laffoon as Shelley Smith looks on.



The Tab Room is where all the judges' scores are tabulated and the winners are decided upon. Here, Sheila Hewitt collects the sheers from Shelley Smith, Mr. Powell, and Patty Hernandez.

This is Eric Schlegel's first drama tournament, and he gives it very serious consideration.

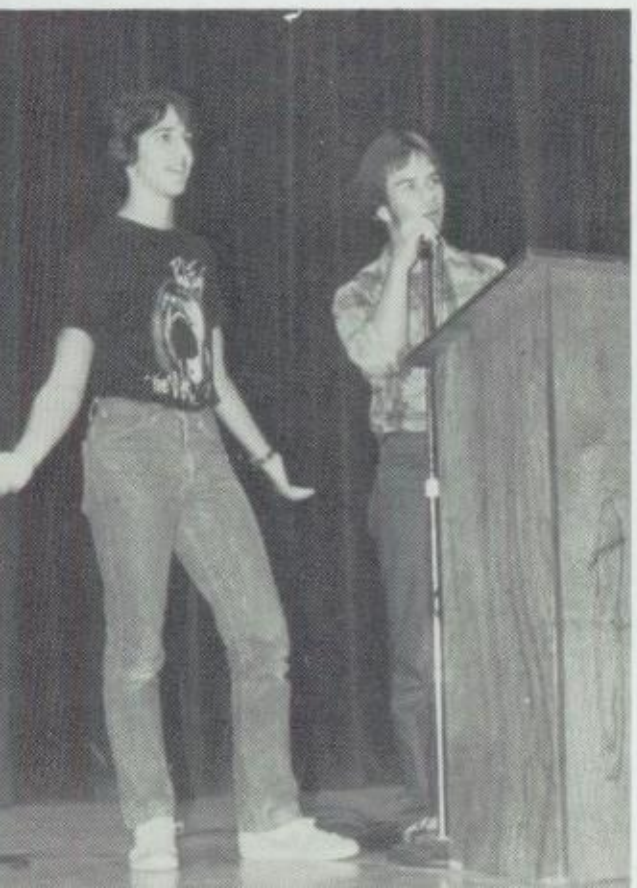
Roy Schlegel and Jerry Fulwiler are stalling for time before the final count is in for the Awards Presentation.



Masterminds

For the second year, Television Channel 5, KRGV, sponsored Masterminds, a game show that pitted Valley high schools against each other in a contest of knowledge. Sharyland's contestants, Jon Esau, Marilyn Bacon, and Steve Townsend, made a fine showing against Mission's John Starke, Neil Campbell, and Jesus Reyna.

Top: Jon, Marilyn, and Steve give an answer that pleases Master of Ceremonies Lee Lindsay.

Middle: Our three Masrerminds have three different reactions to one of their questions.

Bottom: The "Loyal Opposition," John Starke, Neil Campbell, and Jesus Reyna of Mission High School.

Marsha Morneau performs the pleasant task of changing the score tags.

Mrs. Elizabeth Young welcomes Mrs. Laura Harrison back to Sharyland after two years' absence. Mrs. Harrison returned at mid-term to teach Freshman and Senior English.

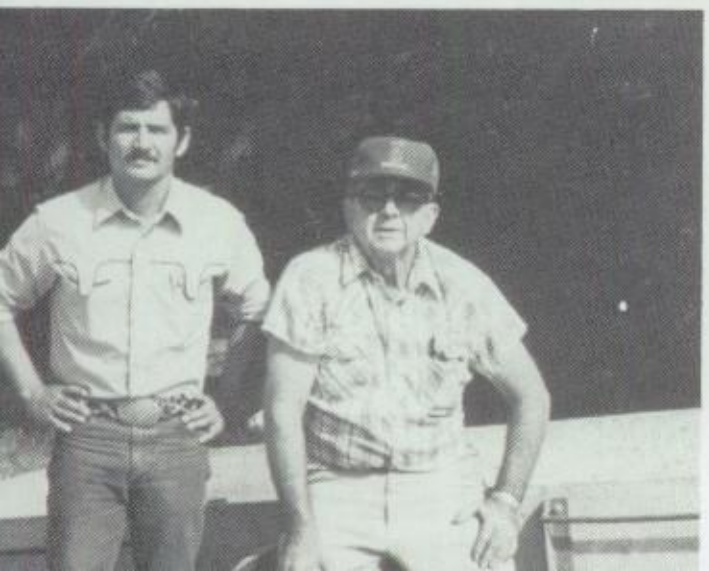
FFA For 1982-'83

FFA Greenhand officers this year are Gina Murden, secretary; Jim Hildreth, vice president; Rich Whittaker, sentinel; Amy Smith, president; Darren Vance, reporter; Charles Stephens, treasurer, and Danny Barrera, adviser



Above are the officers of the Sharyland FFA Chapter for 1982-'83: Kim Orme, treasurer; Robin Jacobs, secretary; Teresa Allen, reporter; Shauna Smith, vice president; Ernie Ibanez, sentinel; Brad Rock, president; and Chris Haden, acting president of Parliamentary Procedure Team.

At left are Mr. Hilario Ybarra and Mr. Jim Jarrett who are the advisers for FFA at Sharyland.

Throughout the entire year, the Sharyland Student Council is one of the most active groups in school. They start out the year with a party for the new students and they continue during the year with the blood drive and the Presentation assembly. The money they raise from these projects is used to support their adopted child and memorials.

So we tip our hats to the council people, for without them, this school would have none of its present splendor.

These Are The Ones On Yearbook Staff

Contrary to popular belief, putting out a yearbook takes more than just snapping a picture and putting it in a book. Doing a single page sometimes takes a couple of hours because we have to design picture layouts, write copy, and identify people.

That's Drama

For the first time, the drama department opened its fall production to total school participation, and Tom Jones was cast with several students, both on-stage and behind-the-scenes, who are not in a drama class: Bobby Bell, Jon Esau, Chris Haden, and Lanie Wood.

From top: The entire '82-'83 Drama Department swarms over the Big S.

The officers of the club this year are at right; Brenda Laffoon, secretary; Joe Gonzalez, historian; Mark Bullard, reporter; Scottie Smith, treasurer; Zina Salinas, vice president; Kevin Sparks, president.

Zina Salinas and Eric Schlegel work on cutting their duet.

The fall play, Tom Jones, gets underway as Mr. Powell and Mary LaCombe work on lines and blocking.

Scottie Smith rehearses a prose selection before one of the many invitational tournaments.

Scapino Is Spring Play

Scapino! was the one-act play we took to competition in the spring of '83. At right are Roy Schlegel (in the title role), Zina Salinas (Zerbinetta), and Mary LaCombe (nurse). Shown below are Jerry Fulwiler (Geronte), Rusty Allison (Leandro), Mark Bullard (Ottavio), Kevin Sparks (Argante), and Steve Poston as Sylvestro, looking on.

Others in the Scapino! cast are Joe Gonzalez, Mary LaCombe Jamie Maples, Brenda Laffoon, Scottie Smit and Melissa Salinas. Seated are Roy Schlegel and Zina Salinas.

Debaters Learn To Argue With Style

The debate topic for the 1982-83 season was: "Resolved: That the United States should significantly curtail its foreign arms sales." Since defense spending is a big issue with the Reagan administration, the debaters had much to research before going to tournaments. Debating opponents from other schools was fun, but the squad enjoyed debating each other just as much.

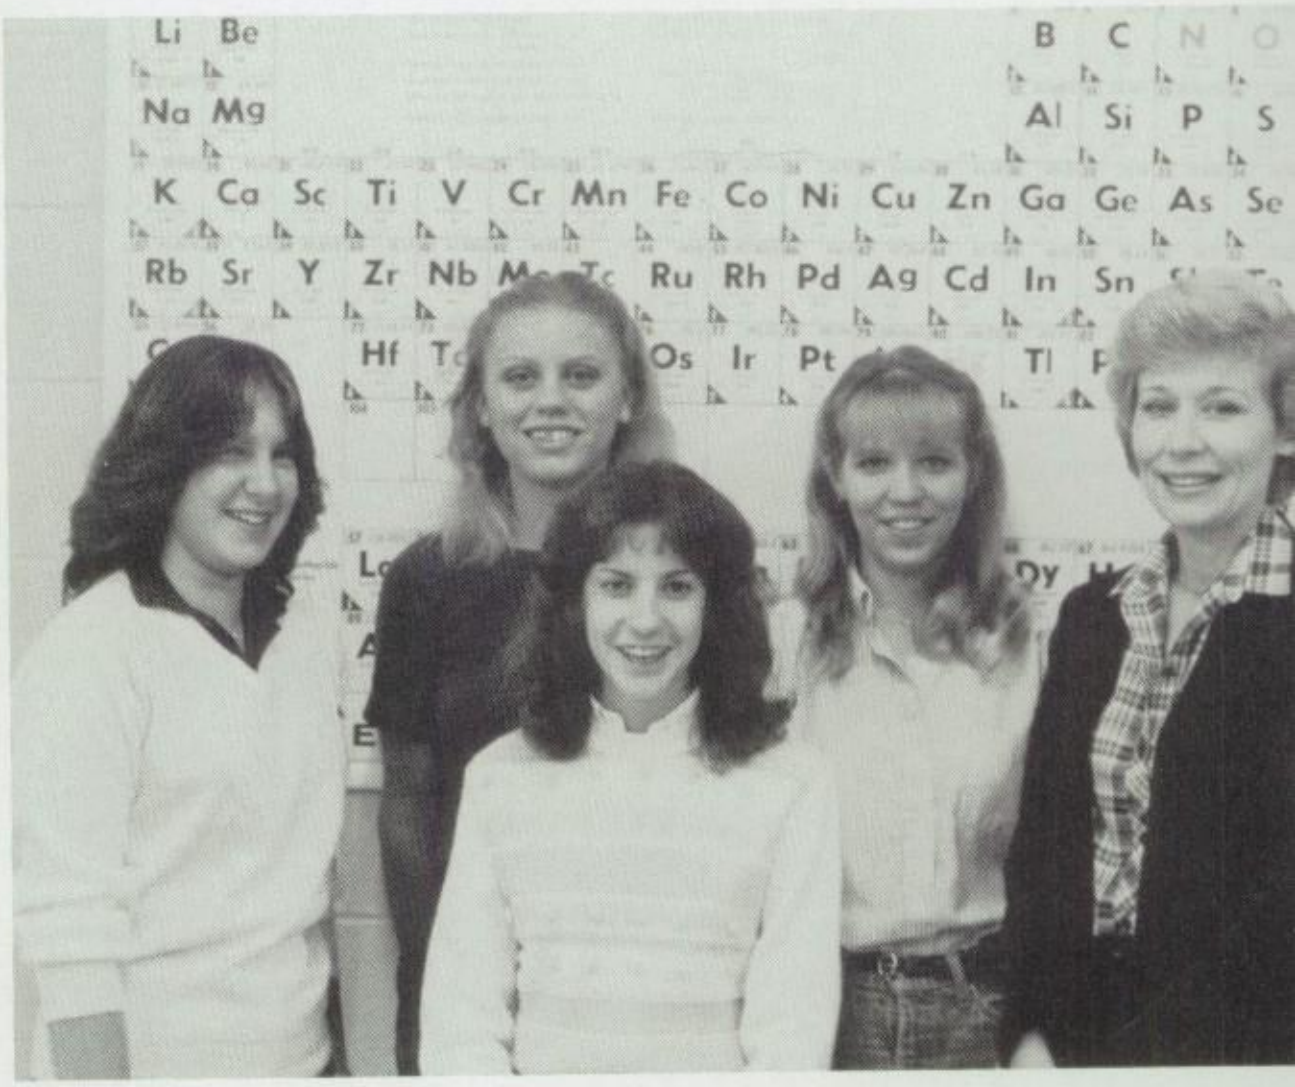
Above: Mrs. McLeaish and Roy Schlegel take notes on a speaker's comments, but other debaters forge ahead on their own research.

Math, Science Clubs Work Hard To Wi



Oh the thrill of taking tests! Members of the Math and Science Clubs actually enjoy taking tests. Naturally, they enjoy the trophies they win if they do well on those tests. Each of these clubs participates at U.I.L. events. Not only is it fun, but it's also educational.

Girls' Athletic Association is an organization that any female athlete can join. Their main project is raising money in order to better the school equipment.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes is a coming together for athletes who put Christ on their team. These young ladies are working diligently to raise enough money to go to the State and National Conventions held in the summer of '83.

VOE presents a great opportunity to learn parliamentary procedures, such as Main Motion, Primary Amendment, Secondary amendment, Lay on the Table, Refer to Committee, Previous Question, Point of Order, and Division of Assembly.

The fun part of VOE is learning respect in becoming a secretary. We do exercises for our backs, for beautiful long fingernails we buff with buffing cream. For beautiful faces we get a facial once a week and use apple cider as a cleanser. We also find out what type of persons we are —— Winter, Summer, Spring or Autumn. We choose colors and type of clothing that best bring us compliments.

As Mrs. Torres always says, "Don't Forget Breakfast Girls." All this is learned in VOE, and it is great learning more than we expected to.

. . . Where we learn much more than we ever expected to

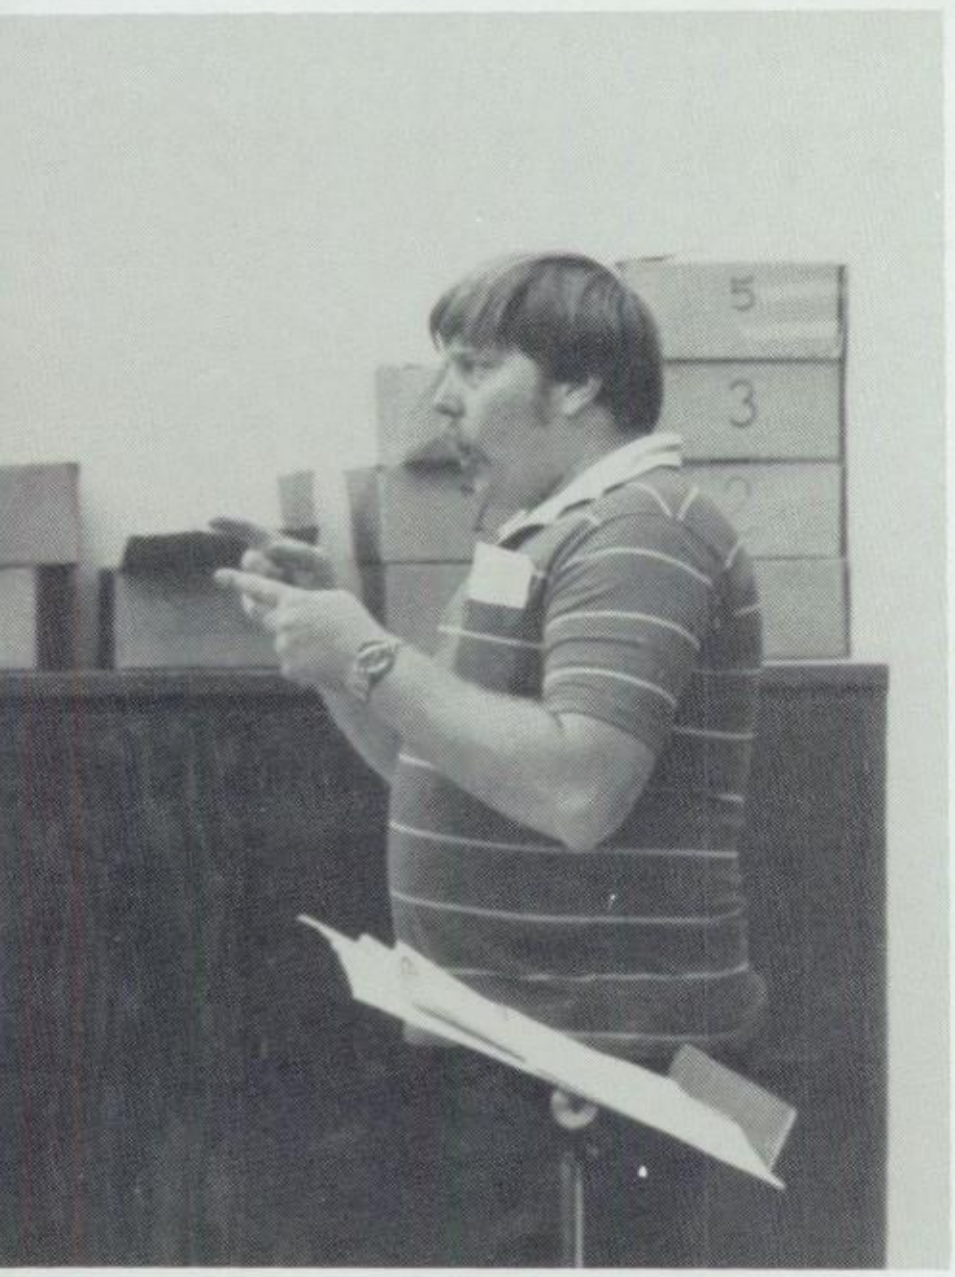
We've Got The Beat!



"... 5, 6, 7, 8, HALT!" "TWEEEET! TWEET-TWEET-TWEET-TWEET!" "HORNS UP!" Rushing to the band hall as the bell for second period rings. Missing "Square Pegs" on Monday nights. Does this sound familiar? It should! Anyone in Band heard it every day for the majority of the first semester. Do you remember "The Night the Lights Went Out in Brownsville"? What a fiasco that was! Nobody knew whether to keep on marching or just to stop until the lights came on. But with all our trials and tribulations, we still managed to have a good marching season. We even got a ONE at Pigskin!

Opposite page, clockwise from top: Mr. Hugo Gonzalez is our band director.

The 1982-83 Flag Corps: Lupita Buentello, Angie Delgado, Anna Sotelo, Cyndie Schmidt, Meli Sotelo, Maria Lugo, Margie Tyndall, Letty Garza, Linda Medrano, Judy Benson, Gloria Quezada, Betty Munguia, Brenda Flores, and Flor Quezada.

Drum Majors for 1982-83 Mark Bullard and Chris Villarreal direct the band at one of our hottest pep rallies.

Band officers are Mark Bullard, Cynthia Chapa, Cindy Gonzalez, Monique Newkirk, and Chris Villarreal.

The riflemen for this year are Johnny Alvarez, Oscar Trevino, David Gonzalez, Joe Gonzalez, and Ernie Ibanez.

This year's twirlers are front: Debi Gonzalez and Jamie Sawyer. Back: Annette Grant, Cindy Gonzalez, and Michelle McMillin.

Liza Dominguez practices her stage band music before the Halloween Carnival.

This page from top:

The stage band practices "Eclipse".

Mr. Hill leads a flute sectional.

"You'd better learn it!" says Mr. Miller.

Pep Squad

is the helping force behind the cheerleaders during the football season. Even though they got a shaky start, the Pep Squad pushed on to give extra spirit to the football team this year.

Nuri Rodriquez poses pretty with Amy Smith before a Friday afternoon pep rally.

Even though the cheerleaders' main task of each year is to give spirit to the team and student body, they do have other activities in which they represent our school. They also manage to have a little fun in between.

Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders get together to go sky high.

Marsha Morneau keeps score for our team on Masterminds.

The J.V. cheerleaders, Lizzy Saldana, Teresa Allen, and Robin Jacobs, clown around for the camera at an afternoon practice.

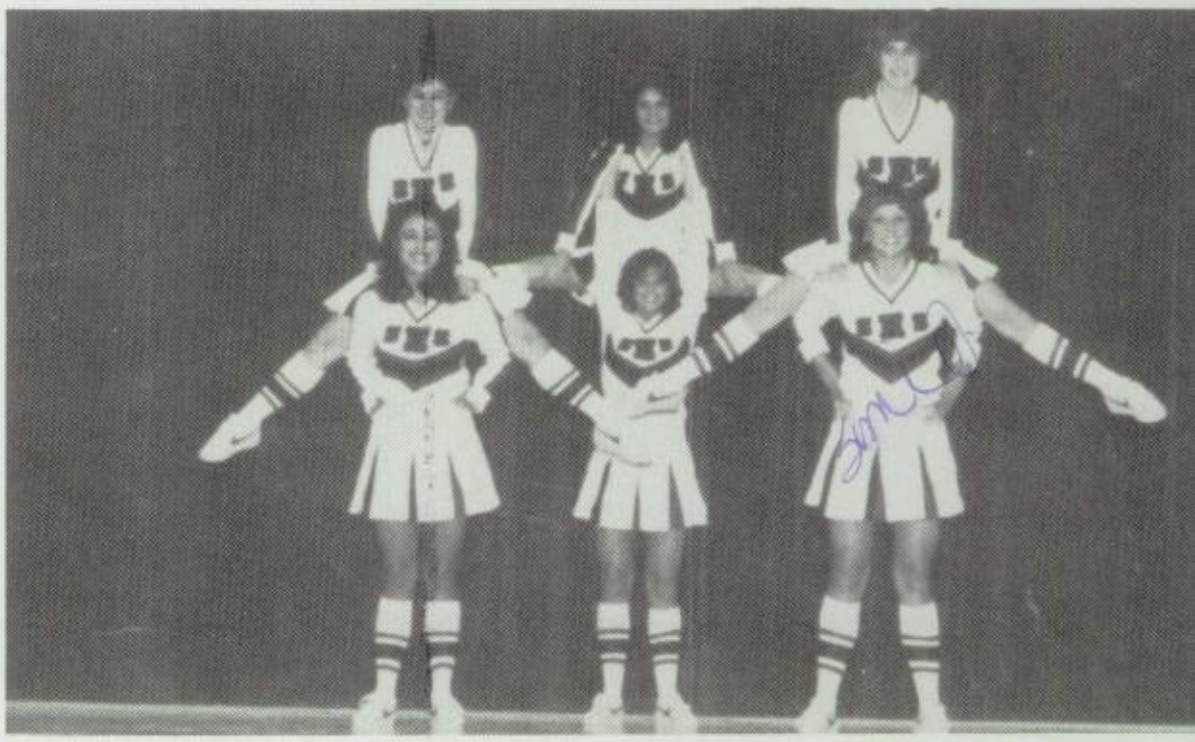
Cheerleaders

We've Got Spirit Yes We Do . . .

This was the cry of the cheerleaders throughout the year. They kept our spirit going even when it seemed like we could not get that last yell for victory out. When our pep rallies were cut short, the cheerleaders were there to get the football players revved up for the next game.

A "thank- you" is in store for the cheerleaders for their tremendous spirit throughout the year.

Varsity cheerleaders for 1982-83 are Marsha Morneau, head cheerleader, Nuri Rodriquez, Parry Hernandez, Chantel Morneau, Sandy Jarzombek, and Zina Salinas.



The cheerleaders lead the students through a fast-paced cheer a pep rally.

The J.V. cheerleaders are Teresa Allen, Lizzy Saldana and Robin Jacobs.

We're very proud of our J.V. cheerleaders, also. They have led the cheers on Thursday nights to support our J.V. football team in their victorious games. They have also helped to give spirit to the Varsity football team every Friday night.

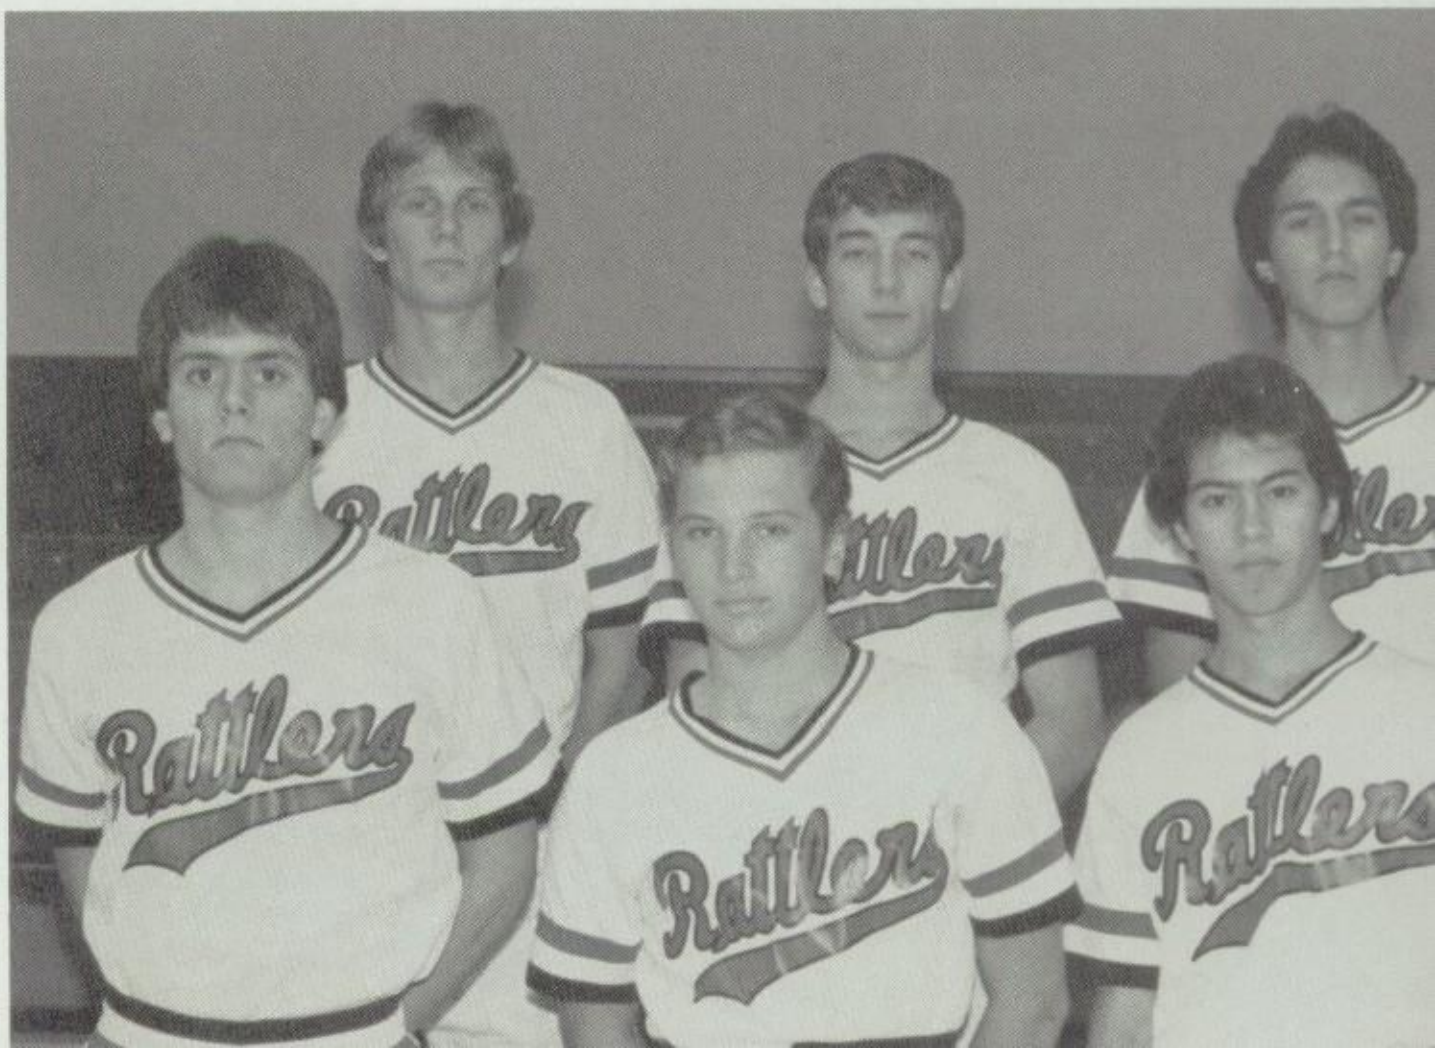
S.H.S. Baseball Starts Third Year

Baseball is still a relatively new sport at Sharyland. Last year was only the second year, but the Rattler Nine finished the season with a very respectable 13-9 record. All-district honors went to Roel Rodriquez, Darrell Krpec, and Roy Rivera.

Because Baseball season begins after the Yearbook's final deadline, it is not possible to include this year's statistics and action pictures; but as we go to press, we wish our team a successful third season.

At right are returning lettermen Chris Smith, Darrell Krpec, Kenny LaCombe, Beau Smith, Isaias Vargas, and Leo Garza. Roel Rodriguez, Roy Rivera, Tony Farias, and Coach Ron Edquist are not shown.



Can you believe it's been 4 years since we graduated from high school. And you getting married. It has been a good high school years. Since Yogi's gripping in Parliamentary Procedure won't state me remember him by. I hope you have something to summer, and may all of your dreams come true. I know you and yucky will be very happy together. Keep in touch. May God richly bless you in every thing you do.

Love Always,
Bird

Well we have ended another year, which just happens to be our last. You're such a special person and I'm glad things are going well for you. I know you'll make a beautiful bride and a good wife. I've really enjoyed having you in classes. You've been a great friend and have helped me with a few problems.
I thank you for everything.
I want to keep in touch with you so send me your address.
Take care, stay sweet, and may God bless you. Good luck in the future.

Love ya,
Barbara J.
